MANAGER

Robert Peter Geren

Named as A's bullpen coach, November 13, 2002

Named as A's manager, November 17, 2006

Birthdate: September 22, 1961

Birthplace/Resides: San Diego, California / Danville, California

Contract Status: Signed through 2011

Bob Geren has compiled a 307-340 (.474) record in four seasons as manager of the Oakland A's. He was named the 28th manager in franchise history and the 17th in Oakland history on November 17, 2006.

Geren guided Oakland to an 81-81 record and second place finish in the American League West in 2010 after posting losing seasons in each of his first three years at the helm of the A's. The A's used the disabled 23 times last year, which was second most in Oakland history, and the 23 players combined to miss an Oakland record 1397 games. After employing an Oakland-record 54 players and tying the club record by using the disabled list 22 times in 2007 en route to a 76-86 record, the A's utilized 51 players in 2008 and set a new Oakland record by using the DL 25 times while finishing 75-86. The A's utilized 51 players again in 2009 and used the DL 17 times in a 75-87 season. Oakland has now used the DL 87 times during Geren's four seasons as manager, a total surpassed only by the Texas Rangers (98), and has employed 129 different players.

Geren has been a member of the A's coaching staff for the last eight seasons, serving as the club's bench coach in 2006 after spending the previous three seasons as bullpen coach. He joined the A's organization in 1999 as manager of Single-A Modesto and spent the next three seasons (2000-02) at the helm of the Triple-A Sacramento River Cats. He also managed in the Boston Red Sox farm system for three seasons, guiding Utica of the New York-Penn League in 1995, the Red Sox Gulf Coast League team in 1996 and Sarasota of the Florida State League in 1998. His seven-year managerial record on the minor league level is 452-390, including a 319-253 record in the A's system.

He gained further managerial experience in the 2005 off-season, leading Escogido in the Dominican Winter League.

Geren was named the California League's Manager of the Year in 1999 after his Modesto club finished 88-52 and won both halves in the Northern Division of the California League. He then led Triple-A Sacramento to consecutive first place finishes in the Southern Division of the Pacific Coast League, as the River Cats posted a 90-54 record in 2000 and 75-69 mark in 2001.

A former catcher, Geren's professional playing career spanned 15 seasons, including five years in the major leagues with the New York Yankees and San Diego Padres. Originally a first round pick of the Padres in 1979, Geren was traded to the St. Louis organization prior to making his major league debut with the Yankees in 1988. He played four seasons with New York from 1988-91 and enjoyed his best season in 1989 when he batted .288 and hit a career high nine home runs. After spending the 1992 season in Boston's minor league system, Geren finished his playing career with San Diego in 1993. He owns a .233 career batting average in 307 Major League games.

MIKE GALLEGO

12

THIRD BASE COACH

Michael Anthony Gallego

Named A's third base coach, October 22, 2008

Birthdate: October 31, 1960

Birthplace/Resides: Whittier, California / Yorba Linda, California

Mike Gallego completed his second season as the A's third base coach in 2010, but it was his 14th season in the Oakland organization, which includes 12 years as a player.

Gallego joined the A's from the Colorado Rockies organization, where he spent nine seasons, including four as third base and infield coach on Clint Hurdle's major league staff, including a storybook 2007 season when they won the National League Pennant. Under his tutelage, the Rockies set a major league record for fielding percentage with a mark of .98925 in 2007. Shortstop Troy Tulowitzki led major league shortstops with a .987 fielding percentage that year and Todd Helton topped all National League first basemen with a .999 fielding percentage. Gallego joined the Rockies organization as a roving infield coordinator in 2000, a position he held until joining the major league coaching staff May 1, 2002. He returned to his minor league duties in 2003-04, before rejoining the major league staff in 2005. Gallego began his coaching career as Boston's minor league infield instructor in 1999.

Gallego's professional career began when the A's drafted him in the second round of the 1981 June draft out of UCLA. He made his major league debut with Oakland in 1985 and spent 13 seasons in the majors with Oakland (1985-91, 95), the New York Yankees (1992-94) and St. Louis Cardinals (1996-97). He is a .239 career hitter with 42 home runs and 282 RBI in 1111 games, including .232 in 772 games with the A's. A valuable utility infielder, he played in three straight postseasons with Oakland from 1988-90 and was a member of the 1989 World Champion A's. In 1993, he won the Good Guy Award from the New York Press Photographer's Association and New York Baseball Writers after enjoying his best season, batting .283 with 10 home runs and 54 RBI.

A native of Whittier, Calif., Gallego graduated from St. Paul High School (Santa Fe Springs, Calif.) and attended UCLA for three years before being drafted by the A's. He and his wife, Caryn, have twin sons, Nicholas and Joseph (12/29/88) and a daughter, Allison (12/12/90), and reside in Yorba Linda, Calif.

GERALD PERRY

HITTING COACH

Gerald June Perry

Named A's hitting coach, October 20, 2010

Birthdate: October 30, 1960

Birthplace/Resides: Savannah, Georgia / Marietta, Georgia

Gerald Perry returns to Oakland in 2011 as the club's new hitting coach, a position he previously held with the A's in 2006.

Perry, hitting coach for Boston's Triple-A affiliate in Pawtucket last season, began his major league coaching career in Seattle under Manager Lou Piniella in 2000. During his three seasons there, the Mariners reeled off a 300-186 record (.617), including a 116-win playoff season in 2001 that set an American League record and tied the Major League mark (1906 Chicago Cubs) for most victories in a season. Perry, who enters his 28th season in professional baseball this spring, has also served as hitting coach with Pittsburgh (2003-05), Oakland and the Cubs (2007-09).

During the 10 major league seasons as a hitting coach, his teams have advanced to the playoffs five times, including Mariners teams that played in the ALCS Series in 2000 and 2001, and the 2006 A's club that also appeared in the ALCS.

In his second stint as hitting coach with Piniella, his 2008 Cubs ranked second in the National League in batting average (.278) and paced the NL in runs scored (855). The average was the franchise's highest mark in 71 years. That 2008 Chicago club also finished first in the National League and second in the majors with 636 walks. It marked the fifth time in which Perry helped an offense rank first or second in the league in walks (also 2000-02 with Seattle and 2006 with Oakland).

During his three-year stay in Seattle, the Mariners led the majors in on-base percentage (.357) and walks (2018), and paced the American League in batting average (.278) and runs scored (2648).

Besides last season, Perry previously spent three years in the Boston organization as a minor league hitting coach with Single-A Michigan (1997) and Triple-A Pawtucket (1998), and was the club's minor league hitting coordinator in 1999.

Originally an 11th round selection by Atlanta in the 1978 Draft, Perry played parts of 13 major league seasons with the Braves (1983-89), Kansas City Royals (1990) and St. Louis Cardinals (1991-95). A .265 lifetime hitter with 59 home runs and 396 RBI in 1,193 games, the Savannah, Ga. native was named to the National League All-Star Team in 1988 when he batted .300 with 29 doubles, eight homers, 74 RBI and 29 stolen bases for the Braves. The previous season, 1987, he set an Atlanta record with 42 stolen bases, the most by a full-time Major League first baseman since Rod Carew swiped 49 with Minnesota in 1976. When he finished his career in St. Louis, he left as the Cardinals' all-time leader in pinch hits (70).

Perry is a 1978 graduate of H.E. McCracken High School in Buffton, S.C. He and his wife, Tara, have three children, Portia, Falon and Gerald Jr.

PITCHING COACH

Ronald James Romanick

Named A's bullpen coach, October 16, 2007

Named A's pitching coach, November 1, 2010

Birthdate: November 6, 1960

Birthplace/Resides: Burley, Idaho / Fountain Hills, Arizona

Ron Romanick begins his first season as the A's pitching coach in 2011 after spending three seasons on the A's major league coaching staff as bullpen coach.

Romanick joined the A's coaching staff in 2008 and assisted former pitching coach Curt Young in developing one of the best young pitching staffs in baseball over the past three seasons. During that three-year period, the A's have posted the best earned run average (3.95) and fewest home runs (444) in the American League, and ranked second in the AL in both shutouts (34) and lowest opponents' batting average (.254).

Romanick joined the Oakland organization in 1999 as the A's minor league roving pitching instructor and spent nine seasons in that role. He also served as a pitching coordinator in the Seattle Mariners organization for seven seasons (1992-98).

Romanick's major league career spanned three seasons (1984-86) with the California Angels, compiling a career record of 31-29 and a 4.24 ERA in 82 appearances, all starts. He made 33 starts for the Angels as a rookie in 1984 and posted a 12-12 record and a 3.76 ERA. Romanick followed up his rookie season with a 14-9 showing in 1985. After going 5-8 in 1986, he was traded to the New York Yankees organization and spent the 1987 season with Triple-A Columbus. He retired in 1988 after spending one year in the Milwaukee farm system.

Romanick pitched at Arizona State before being drafted by the Angels in the first round of the Secondary Phase of the 1981 January Draft.

A native of Bellevue, Wash., Ron makes his off-season home in Fountain Hills, Ariz.

JOEL SKINNER

BENCH COACH

Joel Patrick Skinner

Named A's bench coach, October 20, 2010

Birthdate: February 21, 1961

Birthplace/Resides: La Jolla, California / La Jolla, California

Joel Skinner, who previously served nine seasons (2001-09) on the Cleveland Indians' coaching staff, begins his first season as the A's bench coach in 2011.

Skinner, who managed Cleveland's Double-A affiliate Akron to a 71-71 record last season, served on the Indians' major league staff for nine years, including the 2001 and 2007 clubs that advanced to the postseason. The La Jolla, Calif. native was named third base coach in 2001 and held that position for parts of eight seasons (2001-05, 2007-09). He was named interim manager of the Indians midway through the 2002 season, posting a 35-41 record after replacing Charlie Manuel. Skinner also served as bench coach for Cleveland during the 2006 campaign.

Son of former major league outfielder Bob Skinner, who played 12 seasons with Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and St. Louis, Skinner played 15 seasons in professional baseball prior to his coaching career, including nine years on the big-league level with the Chicago White Sox (1983-86), New York Yankees (1986-88) and Indians (1989-91) when he registered a .228 batting average with 17 home runs and 136 RBI in 564 career games.

He was the youngest (41) manager in the majors the second half of the 2002 season, as he and his father (Phillies, 1968-69; Padres, 1977) became only the second father/son managerial tandem in Major League Baseball history. The elder Skinner played in three All-Star Games and was a member of the 1960 World Series championship Pirates team.

He logged seven seasons as a minor league manager, including three years in Akron (1998-99, 2010), and has notched a career winning percentage of .562 (519-404). Skinner guided five of his minor teams to the playoffs, earning Minor League Manager of the Year awards from Baseball America and The Sporting News after guiding Triple-A Buffalo to the International League championship in 2000. He also served as a coach on Team USA at the 2000 Futures Game. In 1998, he was named USA Today Baseball Weekly's "Manager of the Year" with Akron, and earned additional "Manager of the Year" honors in 1997 while at Kinston (Carolina League) and in 1995 with Watertown (New York-Penn League) after leading the Indians' Single-A teams to league titles. He spent the 1994 season as a roving catching instructor after retiring during the season.

Skinner was originally selected by the Pittsburgh Pirates in the 36th round of the 1979 Draft and was later picked by the Chicago White Sox in the 1982 Compensation Draft. The former catcher spent the last three seasons of his playing career (1992-94) battling back from right shoulder surgery after the 1991 season.

The La Jolla, Calif. native played baseball and water polo at Mission Bay (Calif.) High School. He and his wife, Jennifer, have three daughters, Kate, Erin and Tara, and one son, Cameron.

TYE WALLER

46

BENCH COACH

Elliott Tyrone Waller
Named A's first base coach, December 21, 2006
Named A's bench coach, December 22, 2008
Named A's first base coach, October 20, 2010
Birthdate: March 14, 1957
Birthplace/Resides: Fresno, California / San Diego, California

Tye Waller returns to the first base coaching box in 2011 after spending the previous two seasons as bench coach. He was the A's first base coach in 2007 and split his duties between first base and third base in 2008. The 2010 season was Waller's fourth on the A's coaching staff and his sixth on a major league staff, as he was San Diego's bullpen coach in 1995 and first base coach in 2006.

Waller spent 19 years in the Padres organization, beginning in 1988 as a coach with the Padres rookie-level club in Spokane, Wash. He then served as the club's minor league outfield and base running instructor from 1989-93 before taking over the managerial duties at Spokane for the 1994 season. Following his one-year stint on the major league staff in 1995, Waller served as San Diego's coordinator of minor league instruction from 1997-99 and as director of player development from 2000-05.

Selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the fourth round of the 1977 First-Year Player Draft, Waller played 11 seasons professionally, including parts of four seasons in the majors. In his first season of professional ball, he batted .320 for Calgary and led the Pioneer League in hits, runs and RBI on his way to league MVP honors. He made his major league debut with the Cardinals in 1980 and appeared in five games for the Redbirds. He was traded to the Chicago Cubs in the off-season to complete a deal that sent Leon Durham and Ken Reitz to the Cubs for Bruce Sutter. He appeared in 30 games for the Cubs in 1981 and finished the season batting .268 with three home runs and 13 RBI. Waller was traded to the White Sox in December of 1982 and signed a free agent contract with the Astros in 1983. He appeared in 11 games for the Astros in 1987, his last season of professional ball.

A native of Fresno, Calif., Waller graduated from Hoover High School and attended San Diego City College for two years. Tye makes his off-season home in San Diego with his wife, Cynthia. The couple has four children—Elliott and triplets Todd, Terrence and Tiffany.

Contract Status: First year of a four-year contract through 2013 with club options for 2014 and 2015.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Was one of six players acquired from the Arizona Diamondbacks in the Dan Haren trade following the 2007 season and made his Major League debut with the A's in 2009 at the age of 21...has 18 career wins, which are third most in Oakland history by a pitcher before his 23rd birthday (Vida Blue 30, Trevor Cahill 28)...set an Oakland rookie record and led ML rookies with 150 strikeouts in 2009...was named American League Rookie of the Month in September, 2009...pitched in the 2008 All-Star Futures Game and for Team USA in the Summer Olympics in Beijing, China...was tabbed as the A's number one prospect by Baseball America following the 2008 season...was originally drafted by Arizona in the 2nd round of the 2006 draft but did not sign until September...made his professional debut in 2007 and ranked third in the Diamondbacks farm system in wins and ERA.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS

Lowered his ERA by more than a run from his rookie campaign of 2009 but two stints on the disabled list with elbow problems limited him to just 19 starts in 2010...was 7-6 with a 2.80 ERA after going 11-11 with a 4.06 ERA in his first season...tossed 112.1 innings and did not qualify for the league leaders...however, based on a minimum of 100 innings pitched, he ranked fifth in the American League in ERA...also ranked fourth in fewest home runs per nine innings (0.48), fifth in fewest walks per nine innings (1.76) and lowest run support (3.53), eighth in strikeout to walk ratio (3.41) and ninth in opponents slugging percentage (.353)...is now 15-10 with a 2.88 ERA in 36 starts since June 29, 2009...his ERA is second lowest among AL pitchers with 200 or more innings pitched over that span (Hernandez, SEA 2.33) and sixth lowest in the majors...opponents batted .257, which included .243 (80 for 329) by right-handed hitters and .299 (32 for 107) by left-handers...his career splits are .246 (203 for 826) against righties and .308 (89 for 289) against lefties...allowed all six of his home runs to righties...five came at home, five were hit in night games and five were with the bases empty...his opponents batting average dropped to .225 with runners in scoring position after yielding a .314 average with RISP in 2009...however, the opposition hit .315 when leading off an inning...received run support of one run or fewer in eight of his 19 starts and was 0-5 in those games...had a 7-1 record in his 11 starts with support of two runs or more...is now 0-14 in 20 career starts with zero or one run of support and 18-3 in 29 starts with at least two runs of support...tied for eighth in the AL with four pickoffs and now has eight in two seasons...the A's were 8-11 (.421) in his starting assignments and are 22-27 (.449) in his career...tossed six or more innings 14 times, allowed two runs or fewer 13 times and walked two batters or fewer in 18 of his starts.

OAKLAND: Did not allow a run in his first two starts of the season April 8 against Seattle and April 13 at Seattle to become the first starting pitcher in Oakland history (among pitchers who began the season with the A's) to start the season with two consecutive scoreless outings...the last Athletics pitcher to do it was Alex Kellner of the 1953 Philadelphia A's, who started the season with back-to-back complete game shutouts...was charged with the first wild pitch of his career in the game on the 13th, snapping a career-opening streak of 31 starts and 186.1 innings without a wild pitch...the streak of 31 consecutive starts without a wild pitch was sixth longest by a starter in Oakland history...agreed to terms April 16 on a four-year contract through the 2013 season with club options for 2014 and 2015...had his season-opening scoreless streak snapped at 14.0 innings in his third start, an 8-3 loss to Baltimore...that was the third longest season-opening streak by a starter in Oakland history and the longest since Matt Keough set the record with a 16.0 inning streak in 1980...was 1-1 with a 2.35 ERA in four starts before going on the 15-day disabled list April 27 retroactive to April 25 with left elbow inflammation and a proximal medial forearm strain...it was his first career stint on the DL...made one rehab start with Triple-A Sacramento May 24 against Nashville and had a no decision in the River Cats' 8-3 win (3.0 ip, 6 h, 2 r, 2 er, 1 bb, 1 so, 1 hbp)...was reinstated from the DL May 29 and had a win and a 2.35 ERA in two starts before returning to the DL with left elbow inflammation June 4...made four more rehab stats, going 0-0 with a 3.00 ERA in two starts with the A's affiliate in the Arizona Rookie League and 1-0 with a 3.48 ERA in two starts with Sacramento, before he was reinstated July 30...went 5-5 with a 2.98 ERA in 13 starts following his return...yielded a career-high tying 10 hits in 5.1 innings in a 6-1 loss July 30 at Chicago but picked up the win in his next start Aug. 4 against Kansas City...then had a career-high tying four-game losing streak from Aug. 10 to Sept. 1...went 0-4 despite a 3.21 ERA over that five-start span, receiving no run support three times, including Aug. 27 at Texas when he left after 2.0 innings with a mild hyper extension of his right knee...the 2.0 innings pitched matched his career low (June 3, 2010 at Boston)...then finished the season with a career-high tying four-game winning streak, posting a 2.18 ERA and holding the opposition to a .233 batting average over his final six starts...walked a season-high three batters Sept. 11 against Boston, snapping a 22-start streak dating back to Aug. 19, 2009 where he walked two batters or fewer...that was the second longest streak by a starting pitcher in Oakland history, falling four short of the record of 26 by Gil Heredia (April 10-Aug. 28, 1999)...went 3-1 with a 2.23 ERA and .237 opponents batting average in six starts in September...is now 7-1 with a 2.25 ERA (16 er in 64.0 ip) in 10 career starts in September and is 11-16 with a 3.94 ERA (98 er in 223.2 ip) in 39 starts the rest of the season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Is a .260 career hitter in 371 games and four seasons with Oakland...also has 211 walks for a .369 on-base percentage...has two full seasons (2008, 2010) and two partial seasons (2007, 2009)...led the American League in walks (110) in 2010 and ranked fifth in on-base percentage (.393)...batted .347 in 18 games with the A's in his Major League debut in 2007 and set an Oakland record by reaching base safely via hit or walk in each of the first 20 games of his career...was originally a first round draft pick of St. Louis in 2003 and spent two seasons in the Cardinals farm system as a catcher...was named to the Midwest League Postseason All-Star team at Single-A Peoria in 2004...was traded to the Oakland organization following the 2004 season in the Mark Mulder deal and was converted to first base...played for the United States team in the Futures Game July 10, 2005 at Comerica Park...missed most of the 2006 season after fracturing the radial head of his left elbow in a game against Iowa May 23.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS

Batted .273 with 10 home runs, 57 RBI and an American League-leading 110 walks...the walks fueled a .393 on-base percentage, which was fifth best in the AL...also ranked second in the league in pitches per plate appearance (4.39), tied for second in times on base (265), tied for fourth in sacrifice hits (12), seventh in games (159) and tied for ninth in triples (5)...led the A's in games, at bats (556), runs (79), hits (152), doubles (33), walks, on-base percentage and slugging percentage (.405), and tied for the lead in sacrifice hits...the slugging percentage is the lowest by a team-leader in Oakland history...the previous low was established in 2009 by Kurt Suzuki (.421)...the sacrifice hits were the most by an Athletic since A.J. Hinch had 13 in 1998, the most by a first baseman in Oakland history and the most by any Major League first baseman since Rod Carew had 16 for California in 1982...all 12 occurred over his first 99 games...had no sacrifice hits over his final 60 games, beginning July 30...stole seven bases, which led AL first basemen and were third most by a first baseman in Oakland history...they were the most since Don Baylor had 24 of his 52 steals in 1976 as a first baseman...led AL first basemen in games (157), games started (155), total chances (1492) and putouts (1404) but committed 10 errors, which tied for second most...his .993 fielding percentage was second lowest among AL qualifiers...had seven errors over his first 30 games (.976 fielding percentage) but just three over his last 127 contests (.998)...the games played, games started, total chances and putouts set Oakland records for a first baseman...the games were second most in Athletics history (Norm Siebern, 162 in 1962)...struck out 102 times, marking the 14th time in Athletics history a player has reached the century mark in walks and strikeouts in the same season...batted .310 with a .490 slugging percentage against left-handed pitching and .259 with a .372 slugging percentage against right-handers...hit nine of his 10 home runs on the road...has hit just six of his 26 career home runs in the Coliseum...also had nine home runs at night...hit .233 with runners in scoring position, including .181 with RISP and two outs...made a team-leading 149 starts hitting second...also hit third five times and sixth once...went 0 for 3 with two strikeouts as a pinch hitter and is now 1 for 13 (.077) with two RBI and eight strikeouts in his career in the pinch.

OAKLAND: Walked a Major League leading 22 times during the spring, the most walks by an Athletic since spring stats are first available in 1991...the previous best was 17 by Mark McGwire in 1991...then walked three times in the opener, April 5 at Seattle...that tied the Oakland Opening Day record set by Sal Bando in 1975 and matched by Barton in 2008...had his first career four-RBI game April 8 against the Mariners...drove in seven runs over his first five games but then had a career long 16-game streak without a RBI from April 10 to 27...the streak ended when he homered April 28 at Tampa Bay, snapping a career-long 41-game homerless streak...it was his first home run since Sept. 11, 2009...fractured the volar plate in the middle finger of his right hand April 25 against Cleveland but did not miss any games...homered in the 11th inning May 11 at Texas and added the game-winning RBI single in the 13th...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he is the first Athletic to have a RBI hit in two different extra inning at-bats in the same game since Harry Simpson did it for the Kansas City A's June 12, 1956 in a 9-3, 15-inning win at Washington...had a career-high 11-game hitting streak from May 25 to June 4...hit .341 (14 for 41) during the streak...had a second 11-game hitting streak from Aug. 17 to 28 (16 for 39, .410)...hit safely in 15 consecutive road games from May 25 to June 16 (20 for 58, .345)...tied an Oakland record with three doubles June 26 against Pittsburgh (23rd time, last by Ryan Sweeney, Sept. 14, 2009)...added four RBI, becoming just the third player in Oakland history with three doubles and at least four RBI in a game (Sweeney and Ben Grieve, Sept. 3, 1997 vs. San Francisco)...was ejected from the game July 6 by home plate umpire Mike Winters after striking out in the fifth inning...it was his first career ejection...was ejected for a second time Sept. 12 by Hunter Wendelstedt after striking out to end the game against Boston...homered in the fifth inning July 10 against Los Angeles to snap a career-high tying 0 for 20 streak (also Sept. 8-16, 2008)...it also snapped a 34-game homerless streak, which was the second longest of his career...scored a career-high four runs Aug. 28 in Texas when he went 2 for 3 with a home run and two walks...set an Oakland record with five consecutive multi-walk games from Aug. 28 to Sept. 1...reeled off his best month of the season in August when he batted .311 with three home runs, nine RBI and 27 walks (.466 on-base percentage) in 27 games...boasted a .281 average entering September, but he hit .226 with no home runs and four RBI in 28 games in the month...then had his first career two-homer game and drove in a career-high six runs October 1 at Seattle...hit a solo home run in the first inning, his first career grand slam in the second and added a RBI double in the sixth.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Is 25-35 with a 4.20 ERA in 91 career appearances, including 76 starts, in four seasons with the A's... tossed the 19th perfect game in Major League history May 9, 2010 against Tampa Bay... was 8-9 with a 3.89 ERA in 22 starts in 2009 before missing the final two months of the season with an injury... made his Major League debut with Oakland in 2007 and, after picking up the win in his debut, lost each of his final eight decisions... his debut came after appearing in just 10 games in 2006 because of a humoral defect in his left shoulder... was originally drafted by the A's in the 24th round of the 2004 draft... was named the A's Organizational Pitcher of the Year in 2005 after going 15-5 with a 3.52 ERA in 23 starts with Single-A Stockton and Double-A Midland.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS

Had one of the most memorable performances in Oakland history with his Mother's Day Perfect Game yet finished the season with an 11-14 record despite a 3.50 ERA... the ERA was sixth lowest in Oakland history among pitchers with a losing record and was the lowest since 1978 when Matt Keough went 8-15 with a 3.24 ERA and Rick Langford posted a 7-13 mark and a 3.43 ERA... the last Major Leaguer with an ERA of 3.50 or lower and a winning percentage of .440 or worse was Omar Daal, who was 9-12 with a 2.88 ERA for Arizona in 1998... had the fourth-lowest run support in the American League (3.60)... ranked fifth in the AL in fewest walks per nine innings (2.01) and had the eighth lowest opponents on-base percentage (.294)... also tied for the league lead in shutouts (2), ranked second in pickoffs (8) and fourth in complete games (5)... now has 19 career pickoffs... since 2007, only Mark Buehrle (31) and Andy Pettitte (23) have more pickoffs... opponents were successful in just 1 of 3 (33.3%) stolen base attempts, which tied for the lowest percentage in the AL... has yielded just one stolen base over the last two years, while opponents are 4 for 11 (36.4%) off him in his career... tied for fifth in the AL in losses (14), becoming just the second A's pitcher over the last 12 years to lose at least 14 games (Greg Smith, 16 in 2008)... averaged 14.8 pitches per inning, which was third fewest in the AL... had career bests in nearly every category, including ERA, opponents batting (.249), opponents on-base percentage and opponents slugging (.373)... is now 19-23 with a 3.66 ERA over the last two seasons, with his ERA ninth lowest among AL pitchers with 300 or more innings over that span... opponents hit .249 in 2010,

LEFT-HANDED PITCHERHeight/Weight: 6-1 / 205Bats/Throws: Left / LeftBirthdate: October 28, 1979End of Season Age: 30Birthplace/Resides: Anaheim, California / Anaheim, CaliforniaMajor League Service: 24 daysObtained: Re-signed as a free agent to a minor league contract, January 22, 2009Contract Status: First year of a one-year contract through 2010.CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Began his professional career in 2003, spent two seasons out of baseball (2005, 2006) and missed an entire season due to injury (2008) before making his Major League debut with Oakland in 2010...went 2-1 with a 3.04 ERA in four September starts...was named Mexican League Pitcher of the Year in 2010 after leading the league in wins (13), strikeouts (123), complete games (5), shutouts (3) and winning percentage (.813)...was originally signed by Tampa Bay as a non-drafted free agent April 18, 2003 and spent two seasons (2003-04) in the Rays farm system...was released at the end of Spring Training in 2005 and was out of baseball before signing a minor league deal with Oakland May 18, 2007.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS

Began the season with Quintana Roo in the Mexican League but finished it in the starting rotation in Oakland...was a combined 15-5 with a 2.71 ERA and 158 strikeouts in 29 games, 27 starts, with Quintana Roo and Triple-A Sacramento when he was selected by Oakland Sept. 10...went 2-1 with a 3.04 ERA in four starts with the A's...allowed five home runs in 23.2 innings, with nine of the 20 hits he yielded going for extra bases (four doubles)...held the opposition to a .233 batting average but had a .453 slugging percentage...his opponents batting average broke down to .214 (15 for 70) against right-handed hitters and .313 (5 for 16) against left-handers...yielded a .283 batting average with the bases empty and .115 with runners on base...opponents were 1-for-11 (.091) with runners in scoring position, including 0-for-6 with RISP and two outs...allowed a .156 average the first time through the lineup, .242 the second time through and .333 with three of his five home runs after that...all five of his home runs were solo shots, with each of the first four runs he allowed came on home runs...the A's were 2-2 (.500) in his starting assignments...tossed at least 5.1 innings in all four starts, allowed two runs or fewer three times and walked two batters or fewer three times.

OAKLAND: Made his Major League debut Sept. 13 at Kansas City at the age of 30 years, 320 days, to become the fourth oldest player to make their ML debut in Oakland history...was the oldest Athletics pitcher to make a start in his big league debut since Steve Gerkin started the second game of a doubleheader for the Philadelphia A's against St. Louis May 13, 1945 at the age of 32 years, 175 days...was the winning pitcher against the Royals, allowing just one run on four hits and a walk while striking out four in 5.1 innings...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he is just the fifth pitcher since 1950 to start and win their Major League debut at age 30 or older...the other four were all Japanese veterans (Masato Yoshiii, Hiroki Kuroda, Koji Uehara and Kenshin Kawakami) making Cramer the first American-born pitcher to start and win his debut at the age of 30 or greater since John "Jocko" Thompson did it for the 1948 Phillies at the age of 31...is the oldest pitcher in Athletics history to start and win his debut...also won his second start Sept. 19 at Minnesota to become the fourth pitcher in Oakland history to win each of the first two games of his career, along with Dave Hamilton (4 in 1972), Bill Krueger (2 in 1983) and Vin Mazzaro (2 in 2009)...lost his third start, his only home game Sept. 24 against Texas, and had a no decision in his final start Sept. 29 at Los Angeles, despite allowing just one run in 6.2 innings.

Contract Status: First year of a one-year contract through 2010.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Completed his sixth season in the Majors in 2010...hit .292 with 42 home runs and 214 RBI in 414 games in three seasons with Arizona from 2006-08 but has appeared in just 90 games over the last two seasons with a .218 average, three home runs and 30 RBI in 90 games...has four stints on the disabled list over the last two years...in 2008, established career-highs in nearly every offensive category and was the ninth-hardest player to strikeout in the league, fanning once every 10.03 plate appearances...was honored by the Arizona chapter of the BBWAA with the D-backs' Good Guy Award in a 2008 season that saw him split time between first base and left field...the D-backs' first-round pick in 2003, Jackson was named NL Player of the Week twice in 2008.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS

Combined to hit .236 with two home runs and 16 RBI in 60 games with Arizona and Oakland in a season that was interrupted by three stints on the disabled list...was on the Diamondbacks' DL from April 19 to May 7 with a strained right hamstring and the A's DL from July 1 to Aug. 15 with the same injury...

was placed on the DL a third time Aug. 20 with a lower abdominal strain...had season-ending surgery for a sports hernia Sept. 1...now has four stints on the DL over the last two years...has a .218 average with three home runs and 30 RBI in 90 games over the last two seasons after hitting .292 with 42 home runs and 214 RBI in 414 games over the previous three seasons...had more walks (31) than strikeouts (27) for the third time in his six seasons...was 6-for-7 (85.7%) in stolen bases attempts and is 24-for-29 (82.8%) in his career...batted .346 (9 for 26) with runners in scoring position with Arizona and .125 (3 for 24) with RISP with the A's for a .240 mark overall...had a .316 average with RISP and two outs...hit both of his home runs in the seventh inning or later...batted .181 against a pitcher the first two times he saw him in a game, .396 with both of his home runs and nine of his 16 RBI after that...started 49 games in left field (34 with Arizona, 15 with Oakland) and three at first base (all with Arizona)...was also 1-for-6 (.167) with a strikeout as a pinch hitter and is now 7-for-49 (.143) in his career...hit .304 in 14 games batting first and .196 in 16 games hitting third.

ARIZONA: Was the Diamondbacks' Opening Day starter in left field...hit safely in 10 of his first 11 games, going 12-for-45 (.267) with a double and two RBI before he was placed on the 15-day disabled list April 19 with a strained right hamstring...went 3-for-11 (.273) with four runs, a home run and two RBI in a three-game rehab assignment with Triple-A Reno from May 5 to 7...was reinstated from the DL May 8 and hit safely in his first two contests to extend his hitting streak to a season-high nine games (11-for-37, .297)...however, hit .192 over his first 21 games following his return...doubled in six consecutive games from May 19-25, tying the Diamondbacks franchise record, which he accomplished twice previously...then went 1-for-18 over his next six contests to drop his overall batting average to .220...finished May with a .191 batting average...hit safely in eight of his final 10 games with the Diamondbacks (10-for-33, .303) from June 4 to 13...was batting .238 with 11 doubles, one home run and 11 RBI in 42 games with Arizona when he was traded to Oakland with cash considerations for minor league pitcher Sam Demel, June 15.

OAKLAND: Batted .228 with a home run and five RBI in 18 games with the A's...arrived during the game June 15 at Chicago (NL) and went 0-for-1 as a defensive replacement in left field that night...then started each of the next eight games (seven in left field, one at designated hitter), batting .345 (10 for 29) with two doubles and three RBI over his first nine games with the A's through June 23...went 2-for-16 (.125) over his next five contests...was batting .267 in 14 games overall with Oakland when he was placed on the 15-day disabled list July 5, retroactive to July 1, with a strained right hamstring...went 2-for-22 (.091) with three RBI on a seven-game rehab assignment with the A's affiliate in the Arizona Rookie League (Aug. 8-10), Single-A Stockton (Aug. 11-12) and Triple-A Sacramento (Aug. 13-14) before he was reinstated from the DL Aug. 16...homered in the seventh inning in his first game back that night against Toronto for the A's only hit and was the second player in Oakland history to homer for the A's only hit in a game (Ken Phelps, April 20, 1990 vs. Seattle)...matched his career-high with three walks, Aug. 17 against Toronto...started four games in left field, going 1-for-12 with five walks before he was placed back on the disabled list Aug. 20 with a lower abdominal strain...had surgery for a sports hernia Sept. 1 in Philadelphia...the surgery was performed by Dr. William Meyers...was transferred to the 60-day DL Sept. 13 and missed the remainder of the season.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS

Hit .250 with six home runs and 46 RBI in 156 games in his first full season at the Major League level...ranked fourth in the American League with eight triples and tied for fourth with 12 sacrifice hits...led the A's in triples and tied for the team lead in sacrifice hits...the triples tied for the sixth-best single season total in Oakland history and were second-best over the last 23 years (Eric Byrnes, 9 in 2003)...five of the triples came at home, which tied the Coliseum record set by Bill North in 1976 and matched by Tony Armas in 1980...the sacrifice hits were the most by an Athletic since A.J. Hinch had 13 in 1998...was successful in 29-of-34 (85.3%) stolen base attempts, which was the fifth-best percentage in the AL and ninth best in Oakland history (min. 20 attempts)...the 29 steals were the most by an A's infielder since 1989 when Carney Lansford had 35 of his 37 steals while playing the infield...since 1977, the only A's shortstop with more steals is Alfredo Griffin, who had 33 in 1986...tied for sixth in the AL in bunt hits (7)...led all AL fielders and ranked third in the majors with 25 errors...those were the most errors by an Oakland shortstop since Miguel Tejada had 26 in 1998...committed just five errors over his first 56 games (.981 fielding percentage) but had 20 over his final 100 contests (.958)...tied for the lead among AL shortstops in games played (156) and ranked second in total chances (739), assists (496) and double plays (100)...had the third lowest fielding percentage (.966) among AL qualifiers at shortstop, the lowest mark by an Athletic since Alfredo Griffin fielded .963 in 1987...the switch-hitter batted .258 against left-handed pitching and .247 against right-handers...his career splits are .249 against lefties and .259 against righties...hit .197 with runners in scoring position and two outs and was 3-for-17 (.176) with the bases loaded...is now 4-for-28 (.143) in his career with the bases full...four of his six home runs came with runners on base (two three-run, two two-run)...hit three home runs over his first 21 games and three over his final 29 contests...had a career long 105-game, 353-at bat homerless streak in between (April 28-Sept. 2)...batted .229 over the first five innings, .275 with five of his six home runs in the sixth inning or later...had a .206 batting average and .253 on-base percentage when leading off an inning...batted .398 in interleague play...tied for the interleague lead with two triples and ranked sixth in batting...had the third best interleague average in Oakland history...hit just .233 against the AL...made a team-leading 107 starts batting ninth but also hit .210 with a .291 on-base percentage in 26 starts in the leadoff spot...ranked third in the AL in RBI (36) from the ninth spot in the batting order and tied for fourth in home runs (5).

OAKLAND: Walked a career-high three times in the second game of the season, April 6 against Seattle...hit .214 over his first 18 games through April 23...then went 16-for-47 (.340) over his next 13 games from April 24 to May 8...established career-highs with four hits and four RBI April 27 at Tampa Bay and matched his best with two doubles...had another four-hit game July 1 at Baltimore...had a streak of 13 consecutive stolen bases without a caught stealing from May 17 to Aug. 4...at the time, it was the longest streak by an Athletic since Rickey Henderson had 15 consecutive steals from July 22 to Aug. 19, 1998...went 11-for-92 (.120) over a 25-game stretch from May 11 to June 9...that included a career long 0-for-27 streak from May 22 to June 1...snapped the hitless streak with a second-inning bunt single June 2 at Boston...then hit .414 (41-for-99) over a 31-game stretch from June 10 to July 19, which was the second best mark in the majors over that span (Hamilton, TEX .434)...scored a career-high three runs June 15 at Chicago (NL)...batted .338 in June, which was the best month of his career...his previous best was a .313 mark in Sept., 2009...was batting .271 in 88 games through July 19 and then hit .220 over his final 68 contests, somewhat hampered by an injured left shoulder that required surgery following the season...had his second career two-steal game, Aug. 4 against Kansas City...also stole two bases Sept. 27 at Los Angeles...his home run Sept. 3 against Los Angeles was his first since April 27 at Tampa Bay, a 105-game homerless streak...it was the third longest homerless streak by an Athletic over the last 14 years...committed an error in back-to-back games Sept. 20 and 21, the fifth time he made an error in consecutive games.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Had no Triple-A experience and just nine games at Double-A when he made the A's Opening Day roster in 2010...his debut came in his third professional season...pitched mostly in relief with the A's (26 games, two starts) after making 31 starts among his 33 professional appearances entering the season...is now 12-12 with a 4.08 ERA (82 er in 181.0 ip) in 39 games, 37 starts, in three seasons in the minors...was the A's second round selection in the 2008 draft...was named as the A's number six prospect by Baseball America following the 2009 season and was also tabbed as having the Best Slider.

2010 HIGHLIGHTS

The A's second-round pick in the 2008 draft made the Opening Day roster as a non-roster invitee and spent half of the season with Oakland...went 1-4 with a save and a 5.49 ERA in 26 games, including two starts, before he was optioned to Sacramento July 7...was 2-1 with a 3.55 ERA in six games, all starts, with the River Cats before he was shut down Aug. 10 with a strained right elbow...with the A's, he struck out 32 in 39.1 innings but also issued 20 walks (4.6 per nine innings)...had a 3.32 ERA over his first 11 appearances, a 7.52 ERA over his final 15 contests...allowed a .271 opponents batting average, including .258 (17-for-66) against left-handed hitters and .282 (22-for-78) against right-handers...

surrendered three of his four home runs and issued 14 of his 20 walks to right-handers...opponents batted .323 with runners in scoring position...compiled a 2.49 ERA and .221 opponents batting average in 13 appearances in Oakland compared to a 9.17 ERA and .328 opponents average in 13 games on the road...yielded three of his four home runs on the road...went 0-2 with a 7.04 ERA in his two starting assignments and 1-2 with a 5.12 ERA in 24 relief appearances...yielded a .368 batting average to the first four hitters in the batting order, a .207 mark against the bottom five...allowed 4-of-10 (40.0%) inherited runners to score...first batters faced were 8-for-21 (.381) with three walks (.458 on-base percentage)...tossed two or more innings in nine of his 24 relief appearances.

OAKLAND: Was the only non-roster invitee to make the A's Opening Day roster...made his Major League debut in the sixth inning, April 7 against Seattle...struck out the first batter he faced (Rob Johnson) in tossing 2.1 scoreless innings (1 h, 1 bb, 2 so)...his debut came in his third professional season, 15 days before his 23rd birthday...had pitched just nine games above the Single-A level entering the season...made his second appearance April 11 at Los Angeles, logging 3.0 innings in the A's 9-4 win for his first career save...was credited with his first big league win May 11 at Texas in a game he was also charged with a blown save...entered the game in the 11th inning with a 6-5 lead but allowed a two-out RBI single to Borbon to tie the game...the A's then scored a run in the 13th and he retired three of four in the bottom of the inning for the win...struck out in the 12th inning to become the first A's pitcher to bat in a non-interleague game since Todd Stottlemyre also struck out Aug. 16, 1985 at Kansas City...made his first Major League start May 15 at Los Angeles after Justin Duchscherer was scratched minutes before first pitch...retired each of the first 11 batters he faced before allowing three straight hits, capped by a three-run home run by Morales...allowed a career-high three runs in 3.2 innings and was charged with his first career loss...started and lost again May 20 against Detroit, allowing three runs on a career-high seven hits in a career-high 4.0 innings...also struck out a career-high four...returned to the bullpen May 25, allowing two runs in each of his next three outings (1.2 ip, 3 h, 6 r, 6 er, 6 bb, 0 so, 32.40 ERA)...did not retire a batter in two of those outings, including June 1 at Boston when he was charged with the loss, his fourth in five games...then posted a 4.09 ERA and held the opposition to a .184 batting average over his final 10 games before he was optioned to Sacramento July 7.

SACRAMENTO: Walked 13 and struck out 30 in 25.1 innings in his Triple-A debut...allowed just one home run...opponents batted .253, including .241 (13 for 54) by right-handed hitters and .273 (9 for 33) by left-handers...allowed a .350 batting average to hitters leading off an inning...yielded five of his 10 runs in the fifth inning, as he posted a 2.08 ERA over the first four innings and a 12.27 ERA in the fifth...had made just two professional relief appearances before being used mostly as a reliever during his stay with Oakland...returned to the starters role with Sacramento, but never pitched more than 5.0 innings as he built up his pitch count...held the opposition to one run or less in four of his first five starts...including consecutive starts of 5.0 shutout innings of two-hit ball on both July 21 at Colorado Springs (2 bb, 7 so) and July 26 at Tacoma (3 bb, 8 so)...had a 2.21 ERA over his first five starts and then allowed five runs on eight hits in 5.0 innings Aug. 6 at Albuquerque...notched the win in that game, but it would be his final start of the season...was placed on the disabled list Aug. 10 with a strained right elbow.

August 18	Toronto	5-4	Pennington single

BEFORE AND AFTER THE BREAK: The A's went into the All-Star Break with a 43-46 record, the second consecutive season they had a losing record at the break (were 37-49 in 2009)...it marked the first time the A's have gone into the break with a losing record in back-to-back seasons since 1996-99 when it happened in four consecutive seasons...then went 38-35 after the break, marking the first time the A's finished over .500 after the break since 2006 (48-26)...led the majors with 91 stolen bases after the break...those were the most post-break steals by an American League team since 1993 (Toronto, 93) and the most by an A's team since 1983 (126).

MONTH BY MONTH: The A's finished the month of April with a 12-12 record...it marked the third time in the last six years Oakland finished April with exactly a .500 record (12-12 in 2005 and 2006)...the bullpen had just three save opportunities, their fewest in any month of 12 or more games since April, 1981 when they had just one...went 16-12 (.571) in May, just the second time in the last six seasons the A's finished May with a winning record...posted a 10-17 (.360) record in June, which was the third worst record in the American League (Baltimore and Toronto, 9-17)...it was the A's worst record in June since going 7-22 (.241) in 1986...walked just 67 times, which were the A's fewest walks in a month of 12 or more games since they had 60 in July, 1987...went 14-10 (.583) in July after going 29-49 (.372) in the month over the previous three seasons...finished August with a 13-15 record, their third consecutive losing August...led the majors in ERA (2.83) and opponents batting (.221) in August but were last in the AL in batting (.231), home runs (15) and slugging (.342)...the slugging percentage was the A's lowest in a month of 20 or more games since June of 1982 (.322)...also went 13-15 in September...led the majors with 36 steals in September, which were the A's most in a month since May of 1992 (39) and their most in September since 1980 (41).

IN THE PINCH: A's pinch hitters batted .236 (21 for 89) with three home runs, 18 RBI and 14 walks...tied for second in the American League in home runs and RBI, tied for third in walks and ranked fourth in batting average...the batting average was the best by an A's team since 1999 (.270) and the home runs equal the A's combined total over the previous five seasons...Oakland is now batting .199 (196 for 983) in the pinch since 2000, which is the second lowest mark in the AL over that span (Baltimore, .193)...however, have 160 RBI, which is third most.

DESIGNATED HITTERS: A's designated hitters batted .246 with 15 home runs and 74 RBI...ranked eighth in the American League in RBI, 10th in batting and had the second fewest home runs...led the AL with 172 strikeouts, which set an Oakland record for designated hitters, breaking the mark of 170 established in 2009...those are the most strikeouts by an AL team since Texas had 178 in 1988...also ranked third in the AL in walks (75), sixth in on-base percentage (.338) and 11th in slugging (.386).

INTERLEAGUE PLAY: The A's went 8-10 (.444) in interleague play, their second consecutive season with a losing record against the National League (went 5-13 in 2009)...it was just the fourth time in 14 seasons of interleague play the A's finished with a losing record...are now 70-74 (.486) against the NL since 2003 but are 136-112 (.548) all-time, which is tied for the sixth best record in the majors...ranked fourth in the majors this year with a 3.34 ERA in interleague and were 11th with a .267 batting average...hit just eight home runs, which tied for second fewest in the majors and was second fewest in Oakland history (6 in 2006).

CHRONOLOGY

April 5

A's 3 vs. Seattle 5
(0-1, T-2nd, -1.0)

Ben Sheets allowed three runs (two earned) over five innings in his Oakland debut, but that wasn't enough as Casey Kotchman drove in four runs to hand the A's a 5-3 loss on Opening Night. Seattle scored single runs in each of the first three innings, with Kotchman doubling home Chone Figgins in the first to start things off. Rob Johnson hit a solo home run in the second, then Kotchman brought Figgins in once again with a sacrifice fly in the third. The A's got on the board when Ryan Sweeney singled home Rajai Davis in the sixth. Seventh-inning singles by Cliff Pennington and Rajai Davis also brought runners home, tying the game at three runs apiece. Kotchman struck again in the ninth, however, singling in a pair of runs to seal the deal for Seattle.

April 6

A's 2 vs. Seattle 1 (10)
(1-1, T-2nd, -0.5)

The A's earned their first win of the season behind a stellar start from Dallas aBraden and some extra-inning heroics courtesy of Mark Ellis. Braden held Seattle to one run over seven strong innings, recording a career-high 10 strikeouts in the process. The Mariners got to Braden for their lone run in the fourth, when Franklin Gutierrez scored on a wild pitch. Kurt Suzuki it up in the bottom of the frame with a one-out solo home run to left. No one else crossed the plate until Ellis' two-out, 10th-inning single scored Eric Patterson to earn the walk-off win. Ellis finished 3 for 5. Brad Ziegler (0.2 ip), Craig Breslow (0.1 ip), Andrew Bailey (1.0 ip) and Edwar Ramirez (1.0 ip) – who earned the win – combined for three scoreless innings out of the bullpen.

April 7

A's 6 vs. Seattle 5
(2-1, 1st, +0.5)

Kurt Suzuki's ninth-inning double to left scored Kevin Kouzmanoff to give the A's their second walk-off win in as many days, 6-5. Justin Duchscherer struggled in his season debut, surrendering five runs (all earned) over 5.2 innings, allowing a pair of runs in the first and fourth and one more to cross in the sixth before being removed. The A's, meanwhile, tallied single runs in the first, third, fourth, fifth and seventh to tie the score at five runs apiece after seven innings. Suzuki later knocked in the sixth and final run to give Oakland its second win of the season. Suzuki, Kouzmanoff, Travis Buck, Mark Ellis, Ryan Sweeney and Rajai Davis – who hit his first home run of the year – each had two hits. Jerry Blevins (0.1 ip) earned his first win. Tyson Ross pitched 2.1 scoreless innings (1 h, 1 bb, 2 so) in his Major League debut.

April 8

A's 6 vs. Seattle 2
(3-1, 1st, +1.5)

Brett Anderson threw six scoreless innings to lead the A's to their third straight win and a series victory over Seattle.

Anderson surrendered only three hits, walking one while striking out four. Daric Barton went 3 for 4 and knocked in four, singling in runs in the fourth and sixth before knocking two more home in the eighth. Ryan Sweeney and Cliff Pennington recorded RBI doubles in the third and sixth, respectively. The Mariners got to Jerry Blevins for their two runs in the ninth, but that's all they would be able to manage. Mark Ellis and Rajai Davis chipped in with two hits apiece.

April 9

A's 10 at Los Angeles 4

(4-1, 1st, +1.5)

The A's offense plated 10 runs on 13 hits to make quick work of the Angels in the series opener. Oakland wasted little time in getting to Matt Palmer, tagging the Los Angeles starter for three runs in the first. The A's tacked on single runs in the second and fifth before putting two and three runs on the board in the sixth and seventh, respectively. Daric Barton and Rajai Davis each recorded three hits and two RBI; Cliff Pennington, meanwhile, hit a three-run home run in the seventh. Gio Gonzalez had his way with the Angels lineup, allowing just two runs on six hits in six strong innings. He walked only one and tallied six strikeouts.

April 10

A's 3 at Los Angeles 4

(4-2, 1st, +1.5)

The Angels snapped the A's four-game winning streak in walk-off fashion, with Hideki Matsui's ninth-inning single scoring Bobby Abreu to earn the win, 4-3. Los Angeles never trailed, scoring one in the third and two in the fourth. Oakland rallied with single runs in the seventh and eighth, but Matsui later put the comeback effort to rest. Kevin Kouzmanoff hit his first home run in an A's uniform and finished 2 for 4 with two RBI. Ben Sheets allowed three runs on 10 hits over six innings in his second start of the campaign. Jered Weaver gave up only one run in six innings, recording seven strikeouts. Fernando Rodney pitched a scoreless ninth to earn the win.

April 11

A's 9 at Los Angeles 4

(5-2, 1st, +1.5)

The A's took the series rubber match behind the bat of Adam Rosales and some late-inning run production. Down 2-1 in the seventh, Oakland scored eight runs over the game's final three frames. Rosales led the way by going 2 for 3 with a game-best four RBI. Mark Ellis also got into the act, going 2 for 5 with a double and two RBI. Dallas Braden, meanwhile, was getting it done on the mound. He allowed three runs over six innings before giving way to Tyson Ross, who allowed one run on two hits as he earned the three-inning save.

April 12

A's 4 at Seattle 0

(6-2, 1st, +1.5)

Justin Duchscherer bounced back from a rocky season-opening start to throw 7.1 shutout innings and spoil the Mariners home opener. Duchscherer allowed only two hits and walked two, throwing 60 of his 96 pitches for strikes. Kevin Kouzmanoff and Cliff Pennington brought in single runs in the fourth and sixth with a sacrifice fly and a home run, respectively. Gabe Gross then plated

Kouzmanoff and Kurt Suzuki with a two-out single to left in the seventh. Jerry Blevins (0.2 ip) and Andrew Bailey (1.0 ip) combined to throw two hitless innings out of the bullpen to preserve the shutout, the A's first of the season.

April 13

A's 0 at Seattle 3

(6-3, 1st, +1.0)

Milton Bradley's three-run home run in the eighth inning proved to be the only offense in this contest. Brett Anderson tossed six shutout innings for the second time in as many starts (6 h, 2 bb, 6 so). Seattle's Doug Fister, meanwhile, went eight strong innings, allowing just three hits while striking out four. After surrendering a leadoff single to Jose Lopez and walking Mike Sweeney to start the eighth, Brad Ziegler then threw a fastball that caught too much of the plate, which Bradley turned on and deposited in the right-field bleachers. David Aardsma pitched a scoreless ninth to earn his fourth save for the Mariners.

April 14

A's 2 at Seattle 4

(6-4, T-1st, -)

Jake Fox hit a two-run homer, but that's all the offense the A's would muster as Jason Vargas threw six solid innings to hand Oakland its first series defeat of the season. Fox's home run – his first of the year – came in the second inning, scoring Kevin Kouzmanoff on the first pitch of the at-bat. The Mariners put two runs on the board in the fifth and sixth innings. Milton Bradley delivered a two-run single in the fifth; Franklin Gutierrez and Jose Lopez also singled in runs in the sixth. Gio Gonzalez lasted just 4.2 innings (6 h, 2 er, 4 bb, 5 so) before being relieved by Chad Gaudin, who allowed two runs in 1.1 innings to take the loss (0-1). David Aardsma threw a perfect ninth for the save.

April 15

A's 6 vs. Baltimore 2

(7-4, 1st, +1.0)

Ben Sheets earned his first win with the A's by throwing six scoreless innings as he made quick work of the Orioles. Sheets surrendered five hits, walked three and struck out four, throwing 61 of his 97 pitches for strikeouts. The A's offense, meanwhile, was able to get to David Hernandez early, with Ryan Sweeney (ground out) and Kevin Kouzmanoff (sacrifice fly) each bringing runners home in the first. Oakland tacked on single runs in the second, fourth, fifth and eighth, with Cliff Pennington knocking in two. Rajai Davis, Daric Barton and Mark Ellis had two hits apiece.

April 16

A's 4 vs. Baltimore 2

(8-4, 1st, +2.0)

Dallas Braden went seven innings and Cliff Pennington delivered a two-run triple to lead the A's to a 4-2 win over Baltimore. Only four Orioles were able to reach base against Braden (3 h, 1 bb), who allowed two runs and struck out four. Jake Fox brought in the A's first run with a sacrifice fly in the first, Ryan Sweeney scored Rajai Davis with a ground out to short in the third, then Pennington tripled home Fox and Gabe Gross in the fourth. Ty Wigginton provided the only offense for Baltimore, hitting a two-run homer in the fifth. Brad Ziegler threw a scoreless eighth (1 h, 1 so) before giving way to Andrew Bailey, who recorded his first save of the season.

April 17

A's 4 vs. Baltimore 3

(9-4, 1st, +2.5)

Ryan Sweeney hit a two-run, walk-off single to give the A's the series win over the Orioles. Sweeney finished with three RBI and reached base four times, going 2 for 2 and walking twice. Adam Rosales, who went 2 for 4, plated the other Oakland run with a fourth-inning double. Garrett Atkins went 2 for 4 with two RBI to lead Baltimore. Justin Duchscherer, meanwhile, pitched 5.2 innings, allowing two runs (both unearned) on seven hits. He walked two and struck out five. Jerry Blevins earned his second win of the season by pitching a perfect ninth.

April 18

A's 3 vs. Baltimore 8

(9-5, 1st, +1.5)

Baltimore was able to salvage the series by handing the A's an 8-3 loss. Oakland had a hard time solving Brian Matusz, who allowed three runs on eight hits in 6.1 innings. He only walked one and had eight strikeouts. Brett Anderson did not fare as well, giving up six runs (five earned) in five innings. Jake Fox had a RBI single in the fourth, Kevin Kouzmanoff doubled home Ryan Sweeney in sixth and Eric Chavez had a seventh-inning sacrifice fly to provide the Oakland offense. Ty Wigginton, meanwhile, went 2 for 5, scored three times and knocked in four more to lead Baltimore.

April 20

A's 3 vs. New York 7

(9-6, 1st, +1.0)

The Yankees tagged Gio Gonzalez for three first-inning runs and never looked back, taking the opening game of the series by a 7-3 score. Craig Breslow entered in relief of Gonzalez in the fifth inning only to surrender a three-run home run to Alex Rodriguez – the first batter he faced. Gonzalez was ultimately charged with five earned runs in 4.1 innings (3 h, 5 bb, 5 so). Travis Buck hit a solo homer in the fifth and Kurt Suzuki delivered a two-run shot in the sixth to provide the only Oakland offense. Boone Logan, Joba Chamberlain, Damaso Marte and Mariano Rivera combined for 3.2 shutout innings in relief of Javier Vazquez (5.1 ip, 6 h, 3 er, 3 bb, 6 so).

April 21

A's 1 vs. New York 3

(9-7, T-1st, -)

Phil Hughes took a no-hitter into the eighth inning and tallied a career-best 10 strikeouts to lead the Yankees to a 3-1 win over the A's. Eric Chavez spoiled the no-hit bid by singling on a sharp ground ball that deflected off Hughes to start the eighth. Oakland scored its only run of the game in that inning, with Jake Fox delivering a RBI single to score Chavez. Ben Sheets delivered a solid start as well, holding New York to two runs on four hits in six innings. Mariano Rivera, meanwhile, earned his sixth save of the season.

April 22

A's 4 vs. New York 2

(10-7, 1st, +0.5)

Kurt Suzuki's first-inning, three-run home run proved to be all the support Dallas Braden would need, as the A's took care of the Yankees, 4-2, to salvage the series. Braden allowed two runs on six hits over seven innings (1 bb, 2 so). Oakland scored its fourth run in the fourth, when Adam Rosales plated Jake Fox with a sacrifice fly to right. New York scored both of its runs on solo homers, with Marcus Thames and Mark Teixeira going deep in the fifth and sixth innings, respectively. Brad Ziegler tossed two perfect innings before Andrew Bailey pitched the ninth to earn his second save. CC Sabathia went eight innings, allowing four hits and four runs (three earned). He struck out five and surrendered a career-high six walks. In the sixth inning, the Yankees turned their first triple play since June 3, 1968

April 23

A's 10 vs. Cleveland 0

(11-7, 1st, +1.5)

The A's scored 10 runs on 12 hits and Justin Duchscherer threw six shutout innings as the A's cruised to a series-opening win over Cleveland. Oakland did the bulk of its offensive damage in the late innings, scoring three runs in the sixth before putting the game out of reach with six more in the eighth. Only one of the eighth-inning runs was earned, however, as the Indians committed two errors in the frame. Kurt Suzuki hit a two-run homer in the sixth, his second home run in as many days. Rajai Davis (3 rbi), Ryan Sweeney (2 rbi) and Cliff Pennington (2 rbi) each drove in multiple runs as well. Jake Westbrook gave up four runs on eight hits in five innings to take the loss.

April 24

A's 1 vs. Cleveland 6

(11-8, 1st, +1.5)

Fausto Carmona cooled the Oakland bats by throwing 7.1 innings of one-run ball. The A's scored their only run in the third, when Cliff Pennington singled in Adam Rosales to give them the early lead. Cleveland tied things up in the seventh, then scored two more in the eighth when Mark Grudzielanek and Austin Kearns delivered RBI singles. The Indians tacked on three more runs in the ninth, with Kearns delivering a two-run single to finish with three RBI. Brett Anderson allowed one run on three hits over six innings before he was removed from the game with tightness in his left elbow. Anderson threw 51 of his 80 pitches for strikes. Chad Gaudin allowed two runs in 1.2 innings for his second loss of the season.

April 25

A's 11 vs. Cleveland 0

(12-8, 1st, +2.0)

The Oakland offense found its Game 1 form and Gio Gonzalez tied a career-high by pitching seven shutout innings to lead the A's to the series win. Gonzalez allowed five hits, walked two and struck out three. He threw 100 pitches (62 strikes). The A's got to Cleveland starter Justin Masterson for seven runs in four innings. Eric Chavez, Kevin Kouzmanoff and Eric Patterson led the offensive attack, driving in three runs apiece. The three RBI were a career-high for Patterson. The A's finished with 15 hits. Daric Barton had a game-high three hits in four at-bats.

April 27

A's 6 at Tampa Bay 8
(12-9, 1st, +1.5)

The Rays tagged Ben Sheets for eight earned runs in four innings to take the series' first game. Pat Burrell and Reid Brignac each homered off the A's starter as the Rays scored four and three runs in the second and third innings, respectively. Oakland put a four-spot of its own on the board in the fourth, with Cliff Pennington hitting a three-run homer and Gabe Gross driving in another with a sacrifice fly. The A's tacked on single runs in the sixth and eighth innings, but it wasn't enough to overcome the early Tampa Bay lead. Craig Breslow, Jerry Blevins, Brad Ziegler and Chad Gaudin combined for four scoreless innings out of the A's bullpen.

April 28

A's 3 at Tampa Bay 10
(12-10, 1st, +0.5)

James Shields tied a career-high with 12 strikeouts and the Rays scored six runs in the fifth to make quick work of the A's, 10-3. Shields went seven innings, allowing two runs (one earned) on six hits and walked one. Dallas Braden, meanwhile, allowed six runs on eight hits over four innings to take his first loss of the season (3-1). Willy Aybar had a game-high three hits. Evan Longoria and Carlos Pena each went 2 for 5 with two RBI. Cliff Pennington (1 for 4, 1 bb) was the only Oakland hitter to reach base multiple times. Tyson Ross (0.2 ip) and Brad Kilby (2.1 ip) each surrendered two runs out of the bullpen.

April 29

A's 3 at Toronto 6
(12-11, T-1st, -)

John Buck hit three home runs and Justin Duchscherer exited in the fourth inning due to injury as Toronto earned a series-opening 6-3 win. Buck finished 3 for 4 with five RBI, homering in the third, fourth and sixth innings. Duchscherer, meanwhile, went just 3.1 innings before leaving with a strained left hip. He allowed four runs on five hits and walked two, throwing 36 of 55 pitches for strikes. The A's held an early 3-0 lead, with Kevin Kouzmanoff providing a RBI single in the first and Jake Fox delivering a two-run double in the third. That's all the offense Oakland would manage, though, as Ricky Romero allowed four hits and struck out six in six innings. Kevin Gregg threw a perfect ninth to earn his sixth save.

April 30

A's 2 at Toronto 10
(12-12, T-1st, -)

Recalled from Triple-A Sacramento to replace the injured Brett Anderson, Trevor Cahill was tagged for eight runs (six earned) in five-plus innings in his season debut. Cahill allowed three home runs, with Alex Gonzalez going deep twice and Vernon Wells adding a two-run shot in the fifth. Oakland had its share of chances, tallying nine hits and drawing two walks, but went just 1 for 10 with runners in scoring position and left 10 on-base. Brandon Morrow earned the win for Toronto by allowing two runs on seven hits in six innings. He tied a career-high with nine strikeouts.

May 1

A's 4 at Toronto 3
(13-12, 1st, +0.5)

The A's snapped a four-game losing streak behind a strong effort from Gio Gonzalez. The Oakland starter allowed two runs on three hits in 6.2 innings to earn the win. He walked two, struck out eight and threw 103 pitches (71 strikes). Josh Donaldson provided the bulk of the A's offense, recording his first Major League hit in the form of a two-run home run in the fourth inning. Eric Patterson and Rajai Davis knocked in the two other Oakland runs with RBI singles. Andrew Bailey struck out two in 1.1 innings to pick up his third save of the season.

May 2

A's 3 at Toronto 9
(13-13, 2nd, -0.5)

Ben Sheets allowed nine earned runs and surrendered three home runs as the Blue Jays cruised to a 9-3 win to take the series. Sheets lasted just 3.1 innings, giving up 10 hits and walking two as he threw 75 pitches (46 strikes). Toronto struck for four in the first, two in the second and three in the fourth. Alex Gonzalez, Fred Lewis and Aaron Hill – who finished a triple shy of the cycle – all homered for the Blue Jays. Adam Rosales led the Oakland offense by going 2 for 2 with two walks and drove in two. Shaun Marcum pitched 6.1 innings to earn the win (6 h, 1 er, 4 bb, 6 so) for Toronto. The loss dropped the A's out of first place for the first time in 25 days.

May 3

A's 2 vs. Texas 4
(13-14, 2nd, -1.5)

Rich Harden had his way against his former team, taking a no-hitter into the sixth en route to throwing seven shutout innings as the Rangers earned a series-opening 4-2 win. Harden allowed two hits, walked none and struck out nine. Dallas Braden, meanwhile, allowed three runs while scattering 11 hits over seven innings. Michael Young had three of those hits for Texas; Craig Gentry, Josh Hamilton and Ian Kinsler added two hits apiece. Kevin Kouzmanoff provided the only offense for Oakland, hitting a two-run home run – his second of the season – in the ninth inning off of Frank Francisco.

May 4

A's 7 vs. Texas 6
(14-14, 2nd, -0.5)

Ryan Sweeney had five RBI and the A's tagged Rangers starter Scott Feldman for seven runs as Oakland held off Texas for a 7-6 victory. Sweeney went 3 for 4 and hit a two-run homer in the first to snap a career-long, 51-game homerless stretch. He drove in two with a single in the second, and then singled in Daric Barton in the fourth. Vin Mazzaro allowed four runs in three innings before giving way to the Oakland bullpen, as five relievers teamed to allow two runs over six innings to hold off Texas. Brad Ziegler (1.1 ip, 2 h, 1 er, 1 so) earned his first win of the season, while Andrew Bailey allowed one hit in 1.1 innings to earn his fourth save. Vladimir Guerrero paced the Rangers offense, going 2 for 4 with a home run and five RBI.

May 5

A's 4 vs. Texas 1
(15-14, 1st, +0.5)

Trevor Cahill struck out four in five innings to lead Oakland back into first place with a 4-1 win. Cahill allowed one unearned run on five hits and threw 56 of his 90 pitches for strikes. Ryan Sweeney and Kevin Kouzmanoff had run-scoring groundouts in the first, Eric Patterson hit a solo homer in the fifth and Daric Barton added a RBI single in the seventh to account for the Oakland offense. Andrew Bailey earned his second save in as many days by pitching a perfect ninth. Colby Lewis allowed three runs over six innings, and Vladimir Guerrero drove home the only Texas run with a sixth-inning single.

May 7

A's 1 vs. Tampa Bay 4
(15-15, 2nd, -1.0)

David Price gave up only one unearned run over 7 2/3 innings to lead the Rays to a 4-1 win in the series opener. Price allowed three hits, walked four and had six strikeouts, throwing 72 of his 119 pitches for strikes. Gio Gonzalez matched a career-best by going seven innings. He allowed three runs on three hits and struck out seven. Willy Aybar singled in the first Tampa Bay run in the fourth, then Sean Rodriguez delivered a two-run double in the seventh. Jake Fox scored the only Oakland run in the eighth when Daric Barton reached on a throwing error. Reid Brignac later singled home Ben Zobrist in the ninth to give the Rays some added insurance.

May 8

A's 4 vs. Tampa Bay 2
(16-15, 2nd, -1.0)

Ben Sheets tallied a season-high eight strikeouts as he allowed two runs over 6.1 innings to even the series for the A's. The bulk of the scoring came early, when Ryan Sweeney (RBI single) and Eric Chavez (sacrifice fly) brought runners home in the first. Tampa Bay then plated two of its own in the second before Daric Barton's second-inning sacrifice fly put the A's up for good. Barton later added a RBI single in the seventh to push things to the eventual 4-2 final margin. Sweeney and Chavez had two hits apiece. Andrew Bailey earned his sixth save.

May 9

A's 4 vs. Tampa Bay 0
(17-15, 2nd, -1.0)

Dallas Braden pitched the 19th perfect game in Major League history to lead the A's to a 4-0 win and the series victory. It was the second perfect game in Athletics history (Catfish Hunter vs. MIN, May 8, 1968), sixth no-hitter in Oakland history (last: Dave Stewart at TOR, June 29, 1990) and the 11th no-hitter in Athletics history. It was also Braden's first career complete game. He threw 77 of his 119 pitches for strikes. Landon Powell and Kevin Kouzmanoff provided run-scoring singles in the second and third innings, respectively, while Daric Barton and Ryan Sweeney rounded out the Oakland scoring with a pair of RBI singles in the fourth. James Shields allowed four runs (two earned) over six innings for Tampa Bay to take the loss.

May 11

A's 7 at Texas 6 (13)
(18-15, T-1st, -)

The lead changed hands five times from the seventh inning on as the A's eventually staved off the Rangers 7-6 in 13 innings. Daric Barton led the way in extras, hitting a solo home run in the 11th before driving home the game-winning run with a RBI single in the 13th. Eric Chavez finished 2 for 4 and hit his first home run of the season, his first since June 17, 2008. On the mound, Tyson Ross threw the final three innings, allowing one run on five hits while striking out two to earn his first Major League win. Trevor Cahill started the game, allowing two runs on four hits over 5.2 innings. Colby Lewis, meanwhile, delivered a quality start for Texas, giving up three runs on six hits through seven.

May 12

A's 1 at Texas 10
(18-16, 2nd, -1.0)

The Rangers rode a season-high five home runs to a 10-1 win to even up the series. Josh Hamilton (fifth inning), Vladimir Guerrero (fifth), Max Ramirez (sixth), Michael Young (sixth) and Justin Smoak (seventh) all went deep. Reliever Chad Gaudin allowed three of the home runs in 1.2 innings, after Gio Gonzalez allowed four runs on nine hits in four innings (one home run) to take the loss. Derek Holland earned his first win of the season for Texas by throwing six shutout innings (5 h, 1 bb, 7 so). The A's scored their only run of the game in the eighth inning, when Eric Patterson hit his third home run of the season.

May 13

A's 1 at Texas 2 (12)
(18-17, 2nd, -2.0)

Vladimir Guerrero's 12th-inning single plated Michael Young as the A's fell to the Rangers 2-1 to drop the series. Andrew Bailey surrendered the walk-off hit, snapping his career-best 21.2-inning scoreless streak dating back to last season. The only other runs of the game came early, when Elvis Andrus singled in Julio Borbon in the third before Josh Donaldson had a RBI single of his own in the fourth. Ben Sheets allowed one run on three hits while striking out eight in six innings. C.J. Wilson, meanwhile, gave up one run on four hits over seven. Dustin Nippert pitched a scoreless 12th to earn his second win.

May 14

A's 0 at Los Angeles 4
(18-18, 2nd, -2.0)

The A's losing streak hit three games in their series opener against the Angels. Dallas Braden made his first start since pitching his perfect game, throwing his second consecutive complete game in a losing effort (7 h, 4 er, 1 bb, 5 so). Joe Saunders held the Oakland offense at bay, throwing a complete-game shutout as he allowed four hits while striking out six. The Angels got to Braden for all four of their runs in the sixth inning, with Kendry Morales delivering a RBI single and Hideki Matsui then hitting a three-run home run.

May 15

A's 3 at Los Angeles 12
(18-19, 2nd, -2.0)

The A's held a 2-0 lead after three innings, but the Angels scored 12 of the game's final 13 runs as they cruised to victory. Kendry Morales did the bulk of the damage for Los Angeles, hitting a three-run home run in the fourth before delivering a two-run shot in the seventh. Making his first Major League start, Tyson Ross allowed three runs on three hits in 3.2 innings to take the loss, throwing 41 of his 62 pitches for strikes. Ervin Santana earned the win to improve to 2-3, allowing three runs (two earned) over six innings. He allowed seven hits, walked three and struck out six.

May 16

A's 0 at Los Angeles 4
(18-20, 2nd, -2.0)

The Angels completed the sweep to push the A's losing skid to five games. Trevor Cahill was charged with the hard-luck loss, allowing three runs on five hits in seven innings. Joel Pineiro one-upped Cahill, though, needing only 98 pitches to throw a complete-game shutout (4 h, 1 bb, 5 so). Hideki Matsui had a RBI single in the second, Bobby Abreu hit a two-run homer in the sixth and Howie Kendrick singled in Mike Napoli in the eighth to account for the four Angels runs. Kendrick finished 3 for 4.

May 17

A's 8 vs. Seattle 4
(19-20, 2nd, -2.0)

The A's jumped out to an early lead with seven runs over the first three innings and Gio Gonzalez had his way with the Mariners lineup as Oakland cruised to a 8-4 win in the series opener. Kevin Kouzmanoff's two-run homer in the first got things started for the A's. Adam Rosales finished 3 for 4 with a home run and two RBI, Rajai Davis also knocked in a pair and Daric Barton went 3 for 3 to account for the bulk of the A's offense as they chased Seattle's Ryan Rowland-Smith after just 2.2 innings (10 h, 7 er). Gonzalez, meanwhile, went seven strong innings, allowing three runs on four hits while striking out four. He threw 60 of his 104 pitches over for strikes.

May 18

A's 6 vs. Seattle 5 (10)
(20-20, 2nd, -2.0)

Kurt Suzuki's 10th-inning single helped the A's finish off a two-game sweep of the Mariners. Suzuki's hit, which was his eighth career walk-off hit, plated Cliff Pennington, who had reached base via a walk. Suzuki finished 3 for 5 with a double and two RBI. Jack Cust also knocked in a pair, bringing home Suzuki and Ryan Sweeney with a third-inning single. Ben Sheets allowed four runs on eight hits in 6.2 innings. After Andrew Bailey surrendered the lead in the eighth, Craig Breslow later pitched a perfect 10th to earn his first win of the season. Casey Kotchman finished 2 for 4 with two RBI for Seattle.

May 19

A's 1 vs. Detroit 5
(20-21, 2nd, -3.0)

Justin Verlander went the distance to lead Detroit past Oakland 5-1. He allowed only one run on four hits, walking one and striking out five on 116 pitches (80 strikes). Dallas Braden delivered a quality start of his own, allowing two runs over six innings, but it wasn't enough to keep pace with Verlander. The game was scoreless until the Tigers put four runs on the board in the seventh. Brandon Inge hit a solo home run, Austin Jackson delivered a RBI single and then Casper Wells hit a two-run double. Detroit added a run in the eighth before Oakland scored its only run on an Adam Rosales sacrifice fly in the bottom half of the inning.

May 20

A's 2 vs. Detroit 5
(20-22, 2nd, -4.0)

The A's couldn't solve the Tigers starter for the second day in a row as Jeremy Bonderman allowed one run over six innings to lead Detroit to a 5-2 victory. Bonderman allowed three hits, walked four and recorded eight strikeouts. Tyson Ross allowed three runs on seven hits in four innings before giving way to Vin Mazzaro, who then pitched the following five innings. Mazzaro allowed two runs on five hits, walking one and striking out four. Magglio Ordonez (two-run single in the third) and Miguel Cabrera (two-run homer in the fifth) led the way for Detroit. Jose Valverde threw a scoreless ninth to earn his 11th save. Kurt Suzuki (hit by a pitch in the third) and Daric Barton (RBI single in the seventh) plated the only Oakland runs.

May 21

A's 6 vs. San Francisco 1
(21-22, 2nd, -4.0)

Coco Crisp went 2 for 3 with two RBI in his A's debut and Trevor Cahill allowed just one run over 6.2 innings to lead Oakland to a 6-1 win over the Giants. Cahill gave up six hits, walked one and struck out four, throwing 57 of his 96 pitches for strikes. Giants starter Barry Zito, meanwhile, allowed six runs on nine hits in 6.2 innings to fall to 6-2. The Oakland offense got going in the third inning when Rajai Davis hit a two-run double. Crisp later scored Davis with a sacrifice fly to left. Ryan Sweeney singled in a run in the seventh and Davis (sacrifice fly) and Crisp (RBI double) each plated a run in the seventh to account for the rest of the A's offense. Andres Torres' RBI double in the seventh scored the only San Francisco run.

May 22

A's 1 vs. San Francisco 0
(22-22, 2nd, -3.0)

Gio Gonzalez went a career-high eight innings and retired the final 20 batters he faced to lead the A's to a 1-0 victory over the Giants and the series win. Gonzalez allowed only two hits, walking one and striking out five as he tossed 58 of his 95 pitches for strikes. Andrew Bailey then pitched the ninth to earn his seventh save. Matt Cain took the hard-luck loss for the Giants, allowing one unearned run over eight innings to fall to 2-4. The game's lone run was scored in the third frame. Adam Rosales led off the inning by getting hit by a pitch before Cliff Pennington reached on a fielding error by Aubrey Huff at third base. Rajai Davis moved both runners up a base with a sacrifice bunt before Coco Crisp plated Rosales with a sac fly to left.

May 23

A's 3 vs. San Francisco 0
(23-22, 2nd, -3.0)

The A's finished off their sweep of the Giants by posting their second consecutive shutout. It was the first time Oakland had posted back-to-back shutouts since June 9-10, 2007, also against San Francisco. Additionally, the A's allowed just one run in the series, which tied an Oakland record for fewest runs allowed in a three-game series. Ben Sheets (6.0 ip, 2 h, 2 bb, 8 so) and four Oakland relievers teamed for the shutout. Andrew Bailey pitched a perfect ninth to earn his second save in as many days. The game was scoreless until Jake Fox doubled in Adam Rosales in the seventh inning. Oakland then put a pair of insurance runs on the board in the eighth, with Kurt Suzuki and Ryan Sweeney each delivering RBI singles. Jonathan Sanchez allowed two runs on three hits in seven innings to take the loss for the Giants.

May 25

A's 1 at Baltimore 5

(23-23, 2nd, -3.0)

Jeremy Guthrie limited the A's to one run on six hits in six innings to help Baltimore to a 5-1 win over Oakland. Ty Wigginton and Adam Jones each had sixth-inning sacrifice flies to put the Orioles up 3-1, and Nick Markakis then homered in the eighth to provide some insurance. Dallas Braden, meanwhile, allowed one unearned run on three hits in four innings before leaving the game with an ankle injury. Tyson Ross followed Braden, allowing two runs in 1.2 innings to take the loss. Oakland scored its only run in the second, when Mark Ellis brought in Jack Cust on a grounder to first. Daric Barton and Gabe Gross had three hits apiece for the A's.

May 26

A's 6 at Baltimore 1

(24-23, 2nd, -2.0)

Oakland tied the series up thanks to a solid showing from Trevor Cahill and some early offense. Cahill only allowed one run on two hits in six innings to improve to 3-2. The A's wasted little time in giving him the lead, scoring four runs in the opening frame. Adam Rosales delivered the big blow in the form of a three-run homer to left. He finished 3 for 4 with four RBI. Rajai Davis was 3 for 5 and scored a pair of runs. Baltimore's Brian Matusz settled down some after his slow start, but went on to allow six runs on eight hits in five innings to fall to 2-5. Garret Atkins' solo home run in the third proved to be the only offense for the Orioles.

May 27

A's 7 at Baltimore 5

(25-23, 2nd, -1.5)

The A's rallied past the Orioles with a five-run eighth to earn a 7-5 come-from-behind win to take the series. Ryan Sweeney and Jake Fox each had RBI singles, then Kevin Kouzmanoff delivered a three-run double to complete the comeback. Michael Wurtz improved to 2-0, and Andrew Bailey pitched the ninth to earn his ninth save. Gio Gonzalez, meanwhile, allowed three runs in 6.1 innings (6 h, 3 bb, 6 so) in the no-decision. Brian Bergesen gave up four runs over seven innings for Baltimore. Julio Lugo had two hits, while Miguel Tejada, Matt Wieters and Adam Jones added two hits apiece.

May 28

A's 5 at Detroit 4

(26-23, 2nd, -0.5)

Miguel Cabrera hit three home runs, but the A's scored twice in the ninth to rally for a 5-4 win over the Tigers. Gabe Gross gave Oakland a 4-3 lead with a RBI single to score Adam Rosales, and then Landon Powell provided the insurance with a sacrifice fly. The run came in handy, with Cabrera getting to Andrew Bailey for his third homer in the ninth. That's all Bailey would surrender, though, as he picked up his 10th save. Brad Ziegler earned the win in relief, after Ben Sheets allowed three runs over seven innings to start the game. Jake Fox and Mark Ellis had three hits apiece for the A's, while Rajai Davis and Landon Powell each chipped in with two hits.

May 29

A's 6 at Detroit 0

(27-23, 1st, +0.5)

Brett Anderson threw 5.2 shutout innings in his return from the DL to lead Oakland back into first place with a 6-0 win. Anderson allowed just three hits, walking none and striking out three as he threw 49 of his 70 pitches for strikes. Mark Ellis provided all the support Anderson would need, going 3 for 4 with a double, home run and three RBI. Rajai Davis, Ryan Sweeney and Jack Cust added three hits apiece. Rick Porcello, meanwhile, gave up two runs on seven hits in 6.1 innings to take the loss and drop to 4-5.

May 30

A's 2 at Detroit 10

(27-24, 1st, +0.5)

Max Scherzer struck out 14 Oakland hitters over 5.2 scoreless innings as Detroit cruised to a 10-2 win over the A's. Dallas Braden was not as fortunate as Scherzer, surrendering five runs on 11 hits in six innings to drop to 4-5. He walked one and struck out five. Miguel Cabrera had another big day for the Tigers, going 4 for 5 with a home run and four RBI. Brandon Inge was 3 for 3 and hit his sixth homer of the season. Vin Mazzaro allowed five runs – all unearned – on two hits in two innings in relief of Braden.

May 31

A's 4 at Detroit 1

(28-24, 1st, +1.0)

The A's bounced back behind another strong showing from Trevor Cahill to earn a 4-1 win and the series victory. Cahill allowed one run on five hits in 6.1 innings, walking four and striking out three. Justin Verlander delivered a quality start of his own in a losing effort, giving up three runs on six hits while striking out eight over seven innings. Andrew Bailey, meanwhile, recorded the final four outs to earn his 11th save. Daric Barton, Ryan Sweeney and Kevin Kouzmanoff each knocked in a run for Oakland. Rajai Davis and Gabe Gross added two hits apiece.

June 1

A's 4 at Boston 9

(28-25, T-1st, -)

Victor Martinez had five hits (four doubles) and Adrian Beltre hit a three-run homer as Boston powered past Oakland in the series opener 9-4. The A's scored the game's first four runs, with Daric Barton hitting a two-run home run in the third and Jack Cust (single) and Mark Ellis (double) driving in runs in the fifth. Boston answered with three in the fifth, two in the sixth, one in the seventh and then three more in the eighth to put the game out of reach. Tyson Ross (1-4) took the loss, allowing two runs without recording an out. Gio Gonzalez gave up three runs on seven hits in five innings in a no decision. Gabe Gross went 3 for 4 and Ryan Sweeney, Kurt Suzuki and Kevin Kouzmanoff each had two hits.

June 2

A's 4 at Boston 6

(28-26, 2nd, -1.0)

The A's got to Daisuke Matsuzaka for three runs in the opening frame, but that is all the offense they were able to muster against the Red Sox starter in a 6-4 loss. Ryan Sweeney had a RBI double, and then Kurt Suzuki hit a two-run homer to left. Matsuzaka then settled down, striking out seven in 6.2 innings to improve to 4-2 (10 h, 0 bb). Ben Sheets surrendered four runs on seven hits over six innings in a losing effort. Sweeney, Suzuki, Daric Barton and Gabe Gross all had two-hit games for the A's.

June 3

A's 9 at Boston 8

(29-26, T-1st, -)

Kurt Suzuki hit a pair of home runs and drove in three to lead the A's to a 9-8 win in the series finale. Kevin Kouzmanoff and Jack Cust added solo home runs of their own in the eighth to push the Oakland lead to 9-6. Boston then put single runs on the board in the eighth and ninth, but Andrew Bailey ultimately shut the door as he allowed one run in two innings to earn his 12th save. After Brett Anderson left after two innings with an elbow injury, Vin Mazzaro allowed three runs in 3.1 innings to his first win. Boston got into the home run act as well, with Bill Hall, Jeremy Hermida and Marco Scutaro all going deep. Tim Wakefield allowed six runs in six innings as he dropped to 1-4.

June 4

A's 4 vs. Minnesota 5 (11)

(29-27, 2nd, -1.0)

Delmon Young's 11th-inning RBI single gave the Twins a series-opening 5-4 win despite a late rally from the A's. Down 4-1, Oakland used a pair of home runs to get back into it, with Kevin Kouzmanoff hitting a two-run homer in the seventh before Rajai Davis hit a solo shot in the eighth. After Justin Morneau led off the 11th with a double, Young later drove him home to hand Andrew Bailey his second loss of the season. Dallas Braden allowed four runs on six hits in 6.1 innings in a no decision. Kurt Suzuki finished 2 for 5 with a RBI.

June 5

A's 3 vs. Minnesota 4

(29-28, 3rd, -2.0)

The Twins were able to get to the A's bullpen late to earn another one-run win, 4-3. Starter Trevor Cahill allowed three runs on five hits in six innings, throwing 61 of his 100 pitches over for strikes. Jerry Blevins and Michael Wuerzt then held things in check, but Matt Tolbert hit a two-out RBI single off of Brad Ziegler in the ninth for what proved to be the game-winner. The loss dropped Ziegler to 2-3. Alex Burnett was credited with his first win, and Jon Rauch threw a scoreless ninth to earn his 15th save. Francisco Liriano allowed one run on five hits and struck out 10 in seven innings for the Twins. Mark Ellis and Adam Rosales had two hits apiece for the A's.

June 6

A's 5 vs. Minnesota 4

(30-28, 3rd, -1.0)

The A's were able to salvage the series thanks to some early offense and a solid showing from Gio Gonzalez. The Oakland starter allowed two runs on six hits in seven innings to improve to 6-3. Minnesota's Nick Blackburn was not as fortunate, as the A's got to him for five runs on 10 hits before he was chased after 2.2 innings. Jack Cust and Kevin Kouzmanoff had RBI singles in the first, Ryan Sweeney doubled in a run in the second and Mark Ellis and Cliff Pennington added run-scoring singles in the third. Cust and Kouzmanoff each went 3 for 4 for Oakland. Michael Wuerzt pitched a perfect ninth to earn his first save of the season.

June 7

A's 2 vs. Los Angeles 4

(30-29, 3rd, -1.5)

The Angels put two runs on the board in the first and never looked back as they earned a 4-2 win in the series opener. Bobby Abreu got to Ben Sheets for a two-run home run in the first, and then Erick Aybar (triple) and Howie Kendrick (single) brought runners home in the fifth to put Los Angeles ahead 4-0. Jake Fox hit a solo homer in the seventh, and Ryan Sweeney doubled home Kevin Kouzmanoff in the eighth, but that would be all the offense the A's would manage. Scott Kazmir allowed one run on five hits in 6.1 innings to improve to 5-5, while Sheets allowed four runs (three earned) over six innings to fall to 2-5. Brian Fuentes threw a scoreless ninth and struck out two to earn his eighth save.

June 8

A's 10 vs. Los Angeles 1

(31-29, 3rd, -1.0)

Kurt Suzuki hit a home run and drove in four and the A's collected a season-high 18 hits as they cruised to a 10-1 win. The bulk of the offense came late, as Oakland held a 3-1 lead entering the bottom of the seventh. That's when the A's put four runs on the board, with Suzuki delivering the big blow in the form of a three-run homer to left field. Oakland added three more in the eighth, with Jack Cust sending a two-run shot to left. That was more than enough for Vin Mazzaro, who allowed one run on five hits over five innings to earn his second win. Jered Weaver allowed six runs on 12 hits in six innings to fall to 5-3.

June 9

A's 1 vs. Los Angeles 7

(31-30, 3rd, -2.0)

Joe Saunders' complete game effort and a four-run sixth led the Angels to a 7-1 win. Saunders gave up seven hits and walked one while striking out two, throwing 59 of his 101 pitches for strikes. Juan Rivera and Robb Quinlan had RBI singles in the sixth to chase Dallas Braden, who went on to allow five runs (four earned) in 5.2 innings after Erick Aybar plated Rivera and Quinlan with a triple. Five Angels finished with multiple hits, with Aybar going 4 for 5 with two RBI and Torii Hunter adding three hits. Daric Barton (3 for 4) and Kevin Kouzmanoff (2 for 4) had the only multiple-hit games for the A's.

June 10

A's 6 vs. Los Angeles 1

(32-30, 3rd, -2.0)

Trevor Cahill pitched a career-high eight innings to lead the A's to a series split with the Angels, 6-1. Cahill, who improved to 5-2, allowed one run on six hits while walking one and striking out four. He threw 73 of his 107 pitches for strikes. Andrew Bailey then relieved Cahill to throw a scoreless ninth. Ervin Santana, meanwhile, allowed five runs (four earned) on seven hits over five innings to fall to 6-4. Ryan Sweeney (double) and Gabe Gross (single) drove runners home in the fourth, while Daric Barton, Kurt Suzuki and Kevin Kouzmanoff all had RBI singles in the sixth. Suzuki, Kouzmanoff and Cliff Pennington each had two hits.

June 11

A's 2 at San Francisco 6
(32-31, 3rd, -2.0)

Tim Lincecum allowed two runs over eight innings and Pat Burrell and Bengie Molina both homered to hand the A's a series opening 6-2 defeat. Lincecum surrendered seven hits, walked one and struck out seven while throwing 74 of 107 pitches for strikes. After Jeremy Affeldt put runners on the corners with two outs in the ninth, Brian Wilson entered and struck out Cliff Pennington for his 16th save. Kevin Kouzmanoff, who finished 3 for 4 and was the only Oakland hitter to have multiple hits, had a RBI single in the first and Jack Cust hit a run-scoring single in the eighth to account for all the A's offense. Gio Gonzalez allowed four runs on six hits in 5.1 innings to fall 6-4.

June 12

A's 4 at San Francisco 5
(32-32, 3rd, -3.0)

Barry Zito gave up two runs in seven innings and the Giants held off a late A's push to earn a 5-4 win. Zito improved to 7-2 with the win while Ben Sheets, who allowed five runs (three earned) in six innings, dropped to 2-6. Down 5-1 in the seventh, Adam Rosales delivered a solo shot to left. Oakland then put two more runs on the board in the eighth, with Kevin Kouzmanoff hitting a RBI double and Gabe Gross drawing a bases-loaded walk. Brian Wilson entered the game following Gross' walk, and recorded the game's final five outs to earn his 17th save. Kouzmanoff finished 3 for 5, while Matt Carson hit his first home run of the season.

June 13

A's 2 at San Francisco 6
(32-33, 3rd, -4.0)

Aubrey Huff hit two home runs and Matt Cain allowed one run in seven innings as the A's were swept by the Giants, 6-2. Vin Mazzaro took his first loss of the season, giving up four runs (three earned) over six innings to fall to 2-1. Tied 1-1 in the sixth, San Francisco scored three times, with Huff hitting a two-run shot and Juan Uribe sending a solo homer to left. The Giants then added two more in the eighth when Huff hit his second two-run homer of the afternoon. Landon Powell and Kevin Kouzmanoff had run scoring singles for the A's in the fourth in eighth innings, respectively. Jack Cust had a game-high three hits, and Rajai Davis and Cliff Pennington added two hits apiece.

June 15

A's 9 at Chicago 5
(33-33, 3rd, -4.0)

Four Cubs errors led to four runs for the A's as Oakland took the first game of the series, 9-5. The A's got the scoring started with a four-run fourth, two of the runs coming courtesy of a pair of Chicago errors. Two more Cubs errors in the seventh led to three additional runs for the A's, with Cliff Pennington delivering a RBI triple and scoring on a throwing error by Tyler Colvin. Trevor Cahill allowed four runs on six hits in 5.2 innings to earn his sixth win, while Carlos Zambrano dropped to 2-5 by giving up five runs (two earned) over six innings. Rajai Davis and Kevin Kouzmanoff collected three hits apiece for the A's.

June 16

A's 2 at Chicago 6
(33-34, 3rd, -5.0)

Ryan Dempster allowed two runs over 6.2 innings to lead the Cubs to a 6-2 win. Dempster gave up eight hits and struck out seven as he improved to 5-5. Gio Gonzalez, meanwhile, surrendered six runs in five innings to fall to 6-5. He allowed eight hits, walked three, struck out three and gave up a second-inning home run to Derrek Lee, who finished 2 for 4 and scored twice. Conor Jackson batted lead off and went 2 for 3 with a walk in his A's debut, and Daric Barton added two hits in the losing effort.

June 17

A's 2 at Chicago 3
(33-35, 3rd, -6.0)

Kosuke Fukudome's walk-off RBI single finished off a Chicago comeback to give the Cubs a 3-2 win and the series victory. Down 2-1 in the eighth, Xavier Nady scored Fukudome with a sacrifice fly to tie it up, before Fukudome later drove in Geovany Soto in the ninth. The A's scored single runs in the fifth and seventh, with Rajai Davis hitting a RBI single and Mark Ellis delivering a solo home run, respectively. Dallas Braden allowed one run on five hits over six innings in a no decision. Andrew Bailey had his third blown save of the season, and then Jerry Blevins gave up the game-winning hit in the ninth to fall to 2-1.

June 18

A's 4 at St. Louis 6
(33-36, 3rd, -7.0)

Matt Holliday went 3 for 4 with three RBI to lead the Cardinals past his former team, 6-4. Holliday hit a two-run homer in the first and had a RBI single in the fifth. Chris Carpenter improved to 10-1 by allowing four runs over seven innings, while Vin Mazzaro allowed four runs on six hits in five innings in a no decision. Tied 4-4, Brad Ziegler allowed two runs in the seventh to take the loss and fall to 2-4. Rajai Davis tied his career-high with four hits for the A's, while Conor Jackson and Cliff Pennington each had two hits.

June 19

A's 3 at St. Louis 4
(33-37, 3rd, -8.0)

Matt Holliday homered and had three RBI for the second day in a row to push the Cardinals past the A's again, this time by a 4-3 score. Oakland made a late push, with Ryan Sweeney and Gabe Gross each delivering RBI singles in the ninth against Cardinals closer Ryan Franklin. That is all the A's would manage, though, as Jason Motte relieved Franklin to earn his second save of the season. Adam Wainwright, meanwhile, allowed one run in eight innings to earn his 10th win, while Ben Sheets gave up four runs over seven to fall to 2-7. Kurt Suzuki finished 2 for 4, the only Oakland hitter to reach base multiple times.

June 20

A's 3 at St. Louis 2
(34-37, 3rd, -8.0)

Kevin Kouzmanoff went 4 for 4 with a solo home run to help the A's salvage the series with a 3-2 win. Tied 2-2 in the eighth, Mark Ellis drove in what proved to be the game-winner when he scored Conor Jackson with a sacrifice fly to left. Matt Holliday had a big day once again, hitting a pair of solo homers. That's all the offense the Cardinals would manage, with Trevor Cahill allowing two runs on four hits while tying a career-best with seven strikeouts over six innings in a no decision. Craig Breslow pitched 1.2 scoreless innings to earn his second win, while Andrew Bailey threw the final 1.1 innings to pick up his 13th save. Cliff Pennington finished 3 for 3 with a double.

June 21

A's 4 vs. Cincinnati 6 (10)

(34-38, 3rd, -8.5)

The Reds struck for three home runs in the 10th inning to earn a 6-4 win over Oakland. The A's forced extras when Kevin Kouzmanoff hit a solo homer in the ninth, his eighth of the season. Ramon Hernandez hit a solo home run of his own in the top of the 10th, before Joey Votto hit a two-run shot and Scott Rolen followed him with a solo shot. Oakland rallied again in the bottom half of the inning, with Ryan Sweeney and Kouzmanoff knocking in runs with a pair of RBI groundouts, but that is all they would manage. Jordan Smith went on to earn his first Major League save. Gio Gonzalez allowed one unearned run on four hits while recording a season-high nine strikeouts in a no decision.

June 22

A's 2 vs. Cincinnati 4

(34-39, 3rd, -9.5)

Bronson Arroyo allowed two runs in eight innings to pace Cincinnati in a 4-2 win. Arroyo improved to 7-2, while Dallas Braden lost his fifth straight decision to drop to 4-7. Corky Miller gave the Reds the early lead with a two-out, two-run single in the second, and Cincinnati held the lead the rest of the way. Coco Crisp provided the only Oakland offense when he hit a two-run homer to right-center in the third. Cliff Pennington added two hits and scored a run. Francisco Cordero pitched a scoreless ninth for the Reds to earn his 18th save.

June 23

A's 0 vs. Cincinnati 3

(34-40, 3rd, -10.5)

Jay Bruce's two-run single in the first proved to be all the run support Johnny Cueto would need in a 3-0 victory. Cueto threw seven shutout innings, allowing seven hits while walking two and striking out four to improve to 7-2. Francisco Cordero earned his second save in as many days and his 19th of the season. Vin Mazzaro, meanwhile, took the hard-luck loss, giving up two runs in seven innings to slide to 2-2. Bruce led all players with three hits. Conor Jackson and Mark Ellis each went 2 for 4 for Oakland.

June 25

A's 14 vs. Pittsburgh 4

(35-40, 3rd, -10.0)

The A's scored a season-high 14 runs on 17 hits as they cruised to a series-opening win over the Pirates. Oakland did the bulk of its damage with a seven-run seventh inning, the most runs the A's have ever scored in an interleague inning. The seven runs were driven in by seven different players. Coco Crisp, Ryan Sweeney and Cliff Pennington had three hits apiece, with Pennington driving home a game-best three runs. Ben Sheets gave up four runs over six innings to earn his third win. Brad Lincoln, meanwhile, allowed five runs (three) earned in six innings as he fell to 0-2. Neil Walker went 3 for 4 with a home run for the Pirates.

June 26

A's 5 vs. Pittsburgh 0

(36-40, 3rd, -10.0)

Oakland blanked Pittsburgh for its eighth shutout of the season, 5-0. Trevor Cahill recorded a career-high 10 strikeouts over 7.2 innings to earn his sixth consecutive win and improve to 7-2. He threw 66 of his 113 pitches over for strikes. Daniel McCutchen surrendered four runs on seven hits in six innings to fall to 0-3. Daric Barton had a career-high four RBI and tied an Oakland record with three doubles. Kurt Suzuki drove home the other run with a solo shot in the fifth, his ninth of the year.

June 27

A's 3 vs. Pittsburgh 2

(37-40, 3rd, -10.0)

Kurt Suzuki's solo home run in the eighth proved to be the game-winner as Oakland earned a 3-2 win and the series sweep. Pittsburgh catcher Jason Jaramillo dropped a foul pop up two pitches prior to Suzuki's shot, and then Suzuki made him pay with his homer to left. Jaramillo's error was the fourth of the game for the Pirates; all three of the A's runs were unearned. Gio Gonzalez allowed one run on four hits in six innings in a no decision. Craig Breslow improved to 3-1 by throwing a scoreless eighth, before Andrew Bailey shut the door in the ninth for his 14th save. Evan Meek was charged with his second loss of the season. Ross Ohlendorf allowed two unearned runs on two hits in six innings in a no decision.

June 29

A's 4 at Baltimore 2

(38-40, 3rd, -9.0)

Vin Mazzaro allowed one run over six innings to lead the A's to a series-opening 4-2 win over the Orioles. Mazzaro walked six, but gave up only three hits while recording two strikeouts to earn his third win. Kurt Suzuki led the Oakland offense by driving in three runs, delivering run-scoring singles in the third and seventh. He also had a RBI groundout in the fifth. Coco Crisp turned in a three-hit performance, finishing a home run shy of the cycle. Brian Matusz allowed three runs in 6.1 innings as he fell to 2-9. Andrew Bailey pitched a scoreless ninth to earn his 15th save.

June 30

A's 6 at Baltimore 9

(38-41, 3rd, -10.0)

Five different players homered for the Orioles as they earned a 9-6 come-from-behind win. The A's overcame an early 3-0 deficit with a six-run fourth, with Coco Crisp delivering the big blow in the form of a three-run homer. Baltimore retook the lead with a three-run seventh, as Luke Scott followed Ty Wigginton's two-run home run with a solo shot of his own. Miguel Tejada then provided the insurance runs with a two-run homer in the eighth. Ben Sheets turned in a quality start for Oakland, allowing three earned runs over six innings in a no-decision. Matt Albers improved to 3-3, and Alfredo Simon earned his 10th save.

July 1

A's 8 at Baltimore 1
(39-41, 3rd, -9.0)

Trevor Cahill allowed one run in seven innings to earn his seventh straight victory as he led the A's to the series win. Cahill gave up four hits, walked one and struck out four as he improved to 8-2. Jake Arrieta, meanwhile, allowed four runs (three earned) on seven hits in six innings to fall to 2-2. Oakland did the bulk of its damage in the second and seventh innings, scoring three and four runs, respectively. Ryan Sweeney and Cliff Pennington each went 4 for 5 for the A's, while Jack Cust added a pair of doubles and two RBI.

July 2

A's 3 at Cleveland 0
(40-41, 3rd, -8.0)

Gio Gonzalez pitched 6.2 scoreless innings to lead the A's to a 3-0 victory. Gonzalez, who threw 66 of his 107 pitches for strikes, allowed five hits and struck out five. Mitch Talbot gave up three runs (two earned) in 5.1 innings as he fell to 8-7. Talbot gave Oakland its first run when he walked Jack Cust with the bases loaded in the first, allowing Coco Crisp to score. Mark Ellis drove home the remaining runs, delivering a two-run double in the sixth. Andrew Bailey, meanwhile, pitched a perfect ninth for his 16th save.

July 3

A's 4 at Cleveland 5 (10)
(40-42, 3rd, -9.0)

Matt LaPorta hit a walk-off single to push the Indians past the A's in extra innings, 5-4. LaPorta scored Anderson Hernandez with his base hit, handing Craig Breslow his second loss of the season in the process. Tony Sipp, meanwhile, improved to 1-2 by tossing a scoreless 10th. Oakland came from behind to tie things at four runs apiece when Daric Barton singled home Cliff Pennington, but that would be the last of the A's offense. Clayton Mortensen allowed four runs (three earned) over six innings in a no-decision. He allowed six hits, walked two and struck out seven.

July 4

A's 3 at Cleveland 1
(41-42, 3rd, -8.0)

Vin Mazzaro went a career-high 7.1 innings to lead Oakland to a 3-1, series-clinching win. Mazzaro allowed one run on seven hits while striking out seven to improve to 4-2. He threw 74 of his 111 pitches for strikes. Fausto Carmona also turned in a quality start as he gave up three runs over seven innings, but was handed his seventh loss of the season. The A's wasted little time in getting to Carmona, as Ryan Sweeney gave Oakland a 1-0 lead with a RBI groundout in the first. After Austin Kearns tied the game at 1-1 with a run-scoring single in the third, Mark Ellis delivered a RBI single of his own to give the lead back to Mazzaro. Adam Rosales provided some insurance with a solo home run in the seventh. Andrew Bailey later threw a scoreless ninth, earning his 17th save.

July 5

A's 1 vs. New York 3
(41-43, 3rd, -8.0)

Javier Vazquez limited the A's to one run over seven innings to lead the Yankees to a 3-1 win in the series opener. Vazquez allowed three hits, walked two and struck out two. Ben Sheets, meanwhile, allowed three runs in 7.1 innings for the A's as he fell to 3-8. New York first got to Sheets in the second inning. Curtis Granderson drove home Nick Swisher with a one-out triple, then Francisco Cervelli scored Granderson with a RBI single. Coco Crisp brought in Oakland's only run with a sacrifice fly in the third before Mark Teixeira hit a solo home run in the sixth to give the Yankees some insurance. Mariano Rivera later threw a perfect ninth for his 19th save.

July 6

A's 1 vs. New York 6
(41-44, 3rd, -9.0)

Alex Rodriguez hit two home runs – including a grand slam – to help CC Sabathia to his seventh consecutive win, 6-1. Rodriguez hit his grand slam in the third, highlighting a five-run inning for New York. Rodriguez later delivered a solo shot in the sixth, his 14th home run of the season. Sabathia, meanwhile, allowed one run in 7.2 innings. He allowed seven hits, walked three and had 10 strikeouts as he improved to 11-3. Kevin Kouzmanoff drove in the only run for Oakland when he hit a RBI double in the first to score Coco Crisp. Trevor Cahill gave up six runs in six innings to fall to 8-3.

July 7

A's 2 vs. New York 6
(41-45, 3rd, -10.0)

A.J. Burnett allowed two runs in seven innings and Nick Swisher finished a triple away from a cycle to lead New York to the series sweep, 6-2. Swisher finished 3 for 4, scoring two runs and driving in another. The Yankees did the bulk of their damage with a five-run fourth, with Mark Teixeira delivering a three-run home run. Gio Gonzalez took the loss for the A's, allowing all five fourth-inning runs as his record slipped to 7-6. New York later added its sixth run on Swisher's home run in the sixth. Coco Crisp and Daric Barton drove in the Oakland runs with RBI singles in the third and sixth, respectively.

July 9

A's 5 vs. Los Angeles 6 (10)
(41-46, 3rd, -9.5)

Erick Aybar hit a solo home run off Andrew Bailey in the 10th inning to hand the A's their fourth loss in a row. Down 5-3, Oakland scored twice in the eighth thanks to a RBI single by Kurt Suzuki and a run-scoring double from Kevin Kouzmanoff to eventually force extra innings. Aybar then led off the 10th with his solo shot, handing Bailey his third loss of the year. Brian Fuentes tossed a scoreless 10th to earn his 16th save. Vin Mazzaro and Joel Pineiro both turned in quality starts, each allowing three runs over seven innings. Kouzmanoff, Mark Ellis and Cliff Pennington each went 2 for 4 for Oakland.

July 10

A's 15 vs. Los Angeles 1
(42-46, 3rd, -8.5)

The A's scored a season-high 15 runs to even the series at one game apiece. Oakland scored eight runs in the third and added five more in the fifth to build a 13-0 lead. All 13 runs were allowed by Scott Kazmir – the most runs ever allowed by an Angels pitcher. Rajai Davis and Coco Crisp led the way for the A's. Davis finished 4 for 5 with two doubles, a grand slam, five RBI and three runs scored, while Crisp went 2 for 4 with a home run and three RBI. Adam Rosales (3 for 5, 3 r), Gabe Gross (2 for 2, 2 RBI) and Cliff Pennington (2 for 4, 2 R) also had multiple-hit showings. Ben Sheets, meanwhile, pitched six scoreless innings to improve to 4-8, allowing two hits while striking out four.

July 11

A's 5 vs. Los Angeles 2
(43-46, 3rd, -7.5)

Trevor Cahill allowed one run – none earned – over seven innings to lead the A's into the All-Star Break with a 5-2 win. Cahill allowed five hits, walked two and struck one three as he improved to 9-3. Fellow All-Star Jered Weaver fell to 8-5, as he gave up five runs on seven hits in six innings. Jack Cust and Adam Rosales led the way offensively, delivering a two-run home run in the fourth and a two-run single in the sixth, respectively. Kurt Suzuki, who finished 3 for 3, drove in the other run with a first-inning double to score Ryan Sweeney. Andrew Bailey threw a scoreless ninth inning to earn his 18th save.

July 16

A's 5 at Kansas City 1
(44-46, 3rd, -8.0)

Gio Gonzalez allowed one run in seven innings to lead Oakland to a series-opening 5-1 win over Kansas City. Gonzalez allowed seven hits, walked one and struck out three as he threw 62 of 99 pitches for strikes. Zack Greinke gave up five runs (two earned) in six innings to fall to 5-9. The A's scored single runs in the first and second before plating three unearned runs in the third following an error by Royals shortstop Yuniesky Betancourt. Kevin Kouzmanoff delivered a two-run single in the inning, and Mark Ellis followed him with a RBI single of his own. Kouzmanoff and Ellis finished with two hits apiece.

July 17

A's 6 at Kansas City 5
(45-46, 3rd, -7.0)

Adam Rosales' two-out RBI single in the ninth proved to be the game-winner as the A's earned a 6-5 win. Tied at five runs apiece, Rosales singled up the middle to score Kurt Suzuki before Andrew Bailey threw a scoreless bottom half of the frame for his 19th save. Both starting pitchers struggled, with Trevor Cahill allowing five runs in 6.2 innings for Oakland while Bruce Chen gave up four runs in 5.2 innings for Kansas City. The Royals scored all five of their runs against Cahill in the second, with Yuniesky Betancourt delivering the big blow in the form of a grand slam. Rosales and Kevin Kouzmanoff paced the A's offense, going 3 for 5 with two RBI and 2 for 5 with three RBI, respectively. Daric Barton had three hits and scored twice.

July 18

A's 9 at Kansas City 6
(46-46, 3rd, -7.0)

The A's staged off a late Royals rally to earn a 9-6 win and the series sweep. Jack Cust hit a three-run home run in the top of the ninth to push the Oakland lead to 9-1. Kansas City, however, rallied for five runs in the bottom half of the inning, scoring two against Brad Ziegler and getting three (one earned) off Cedrick Bowers. Chris Getz and Scott Podsednik each drove in a pair in the inning. Andrew Bailey then entered to record the final out and earn his 20th save. Kevin Kouzmanoff and Adam Rosales each contributed with a pair of RBI, while Vin Mazzaro gave up one run in 7.2 innings to improve to 5-2. Brian Bannister allowed five runs on six hits and walked six in 6.1 innings as he dropped to 7-8.

July 19

A's 1 vs. Boston 2
(46-47, 3rd, -8.0)

Ben Sheets turned in a quality start for the A's, but they couldn't solve Daisuke Matsuzaka as the Red Sox took the series opener, 2-1. Oakland scored its only run in the third, when Rajai Davis hit a solo home run to left. Boston countered with two in the fourth, as David Ortiz scored Eric Patterson with a sacrifice fly before Adrian Beltre hit a solo home run to left-center, his 15th of the season. Matsuzaka went 6.2 innings, giving up two hits and walking two while striking out six to improve to 7-3. Sheets, meanwhile, allowed seven hits over 6.2 innings as he fell to 4-9. Jonathan Papelbon threw a scoreless ninth to earn his 21st save.

July 20

A's 5 vs. Boston 4 (10)
(47-47, 3rd, -8.0)

Kevin Kouzmanoff hit a two-out, walk-off single in the 10th to lead Oakland past Boston, 5-4. Down 4-0, the A's rallied for four runs in the third. Jack Cust hit a two-run double, Kurt Suzuki scored on a passed ball and then Kouzmanoff brought in Cust with a sacrifice fly. The teams then traded scoreless innings until Kouzmanoff brought in Daric Barton, who had singled, for the game-winner. Andrew Bailey threw two shutout innings to earn his first win of the season, while Ramon Ramirez fell to 0-3 for Boston. Dallas Braden allowed four runs (one earned) on 10 hits in 4.2 innings in a no decision, throwing 57 of 94 pitches for strikes. Tim Wakefield gave up four runs (three earned) in six innings for the Red Sox.

July 21

A's 6 vs. Boston 4
(48-47, 3rd, -7.0)

Jack Cust and Matt Watson both homered to lead the A's to a 6-4 win and the series victory. Watson hit his home run, the first of his Major League career, in the second to tie the game at one run apiece. Cust's two-run shot in the third scored Kurt Suzuki and gave Oakland its first lead. The A's got some insurance in the form of a three-run fifth, with Rajai Davis highlighting the scoring with a two-run single. Gio Gonzalez gave up four runs in six innings to improve to 9-7, while the A's got to Clay Buchholz for five runs in four innings to drop him to 10-5. Henry Rodriguez and Brad Ziegler pitched a scoreless seventh and eighth, respectively, before Michael Wurtz threw a perfect ninth for his second save.

July 23

A's 1 vs. Chicago 5
(48-48, 3rd, -8.5)

Mark Buehrle threw a complete-game four-hitter to hand the A's a series-opening 5-1 loss. Buehrle did not walk a batter and had two strikeouts, throwing 69 of his 101 pitches for strikes. Trevor Cahill, meanwhile, fell to 9-4 despite allowing two earned runs in seven innings. Carlos Quentin and A.J. Pierzynski drove in two runs apiece, while Omar Vizquel and Alex Rios each finished with two hits. Oakland scored its only run in the seventh, when Jack Cust doubled home Kevin Kouzmanoff, who had also doubled.

July 24

A's 10 vs. Chicago 2
(49-48, 3rd, -7.5)

Jack Cust hit two home runs and Kurt Suzuki added a solo shot as Oakland cruised to 10-2 win over Chicago. Cust finished 2 for 2 with three walks and three runs scored, while Suzuki was 3 for 4 with two runs and a pair of RBI. Daric Barton (2 for 4), Kevin Kouzmanoff (2 for 4) and Gabe Gross (2 for 3) each had multiple-hit showings as well. Vin Mazzaro allowed two runs in six innings as he earned his sixth win. He allowed three hits, walked three and struck out five. Freddy Garcia, meanwhile, gave up five runs in 1.1 innings – the shortest start of his Major League career.

July 25

A's 6 vs. Chicago 4
(50-48, 3rd, -7.5)

Dallas Braden allowed three runs in 6.1 innings to lead the A's to a 6-4 win. The win snapped a nine-start winless streak for Braden, which was the longest such streak following a no-hitter or perfect game in Major League history. He gave up five hits, walked two and struck out five. Oakland did the bulk of its scoring with a four-run second, with Daric Barton and Kurt Suzuki both delivering two-run singles. Barton and Suzuki each finished 2 for 4. Daniel Hudson allowed five runs on six hits in five innings for the White Sox as he fell to 1-1. Michael Wuerzt pitched a scoreless ninth for his third save.

July 27

A's 1 at Texas 3 (10)
(50-49, T-2nd, -8.5)

Cliff Lee had 13 strikeouts in nine innings and Nelson Cruz hit a walk-off home run in the 10th to hand the A's a series-opening 3-1 defeat. Lee allowed one unearned run on five hits and did not walk a batter, throwing 88 of 118 pitches for strikes. Gio Gonzalez also had a quality start, giving up one run on five hits in six innings. Gonzalez allowed his only run in the first, when Vladimir Guerrero doubled home Michael Young. Kurt Suzuki tied the game at one run apiece with a RBI single in the sixth, then Cruz later delivered the deciding blow when he took Michael Wuerzt (2-2) deep in extra innings. Neftali Feliz pitched a scoreless 10th to earn his second win.

July 28

A's 3 at Texas 1
(51-49, 2nd, -7.5)

Trevor Cahill pitched eight shutout innings to lead Oakland to a 3-1 win. Cahill gave up two hits and walked three while striking out four as he earned his 10th win of the season. Colby Lewis, meanwhile, fell to 9-7 despite allowing one run in seven innings. The A's scored their only run against Lewis when Kurt Suzuki hit a solo home run to left in the sixth. Oakland added two more in the eighth, with Suzuki and Jack Cust delivering run-scoring singles. The Rangers rallied in the ninth, as Vladimir Guerrero singled home Julio Borbon to chase Michael Wuerzt. Craig Breslow then entered and struck out Josh Hamilton and Nelson Cruz to earn his first save.

July 29

A's 4 at Texas 7
(51-50, 2nd, -8.5)

Michael Young had a four-hit game while David Murphy and Taylor Teagarden both homered to lead Texas past Oakland, 7-4. Down 4-1 in the sixth, the A's scored twice behind a RBI groundout from Landon Powell and a run-scoring double by Cliff Pennington to pull within one. The Rangers then scored three more runs in the bottom of the inning to quiet the Oakland comeback effort, with Murphy and Teagarden both homering in the frame. Vin Mazzaro allowed all seven Rangers runs in 5.1 innings as he fell to 6-3. C.J. Wilson gave up three runs over 5.2 innings to earn his 10th win.

July 30

A's 1 at Chicago 6
(51-51, 3rd, -8.5)

Lucas Harrell allowed one run in six innings in his Major League debut to lead the White Sox past the A's, 6-1. Harrell gave up four hits, walked five and had a strikeout. Making his first start since coming off the disabled list, Brett Anderson allowed five runs on 10 hits in five innings to fall to 2-2. Chicago did the bulk of its damage with a three-run fourth. A.J. Pierzynski and Gordon Beckham had run-scoring singles in the frame, while Andruw Jones added a RBI groundout. Pierzynski and Paul Konerko each had two hits, while Dayan Viciedo went 3 for 3. Cliff Pennington drove home the only run for the A's when he singled in Mark Ellis in the fourth.

July 31

A's 6 at Chicago 2
(52-51, 2nd, -8.5)

Oakland brought Chicago's 12-game home winning streak to an end behind a complete-game performance from Dallas Braden. Braden allowed two runs on eight hits, walking two and striking out five. He threw 111 pitches, 76 for strikes. John Danks, meanwhile, gave up five runs in 6.2 innings to fall to 11-8. The A's got to Danks for four runs in the second. Rajai Davis and Matt Carson each delivered RBI singles in the frame, then Daric Barton added a two-run single of his own. Davis and Barton had two hits apiece, while Kevin Kouzmanoff went 3 for 5 and scored three runs.

August 1

A's 1 at Chicago 4
(52-52, 3rd, -8.5)

Gavin Floyd allowed one run in seven innings to lead the White Sox to a 4-1 win in the rubber match. Floyd, who carried a perfect game into the sixth, allowed four hits, walked three and had five strikeouts. Gio Gonzalez pitched a complete game in a losing effort, giving up four runs on six hits while recording a career-best 11 strikeouts. Chicago got to Gonzalez for all four of its runs in the fifth. Brent Lillibridge hit a two-out, three-run triple, then Juan Pierre brought in Lillibridge with a bunt single. The A's scored their only run in the sixth, when Rajai Davis singled home Cliff Pennington.

August 2

A's 6 vs. Kansas City 0
(53-52, T-2nd, -8.0)

Trevor Cahill became the third A's starter in a row to pitch a complete game as he led Oakland to a 6-0 win over Kansas City. Cahill gave up three hits, walked four and struck out three as he threw 62 of his 109 pitches for strikes. The last time Oakland pitchers threw three straight complete games was September 8-10, 2000 (Gil Heredia, Tim Hudson, Barry Zito). Brian Bannister did not fare as well, allowing five runs on seven hits in five innings. After taking a 1-0 lead in the first on a Kevin Kouzmanoff RBI single, the A's added two more in the fourth and fifth, courtesy of a Matt Watson two-run double and a Jack Cust two-run homer. Coco Crisp brought in the sixth run, singling home Gabe Gross in the eighth.

August 3

A's 2 vs. Kansas City 3
(53-53, T-2nd, -8.0)

After reaching on an error, Alex Gordon scored the game-winning run in the ninth on a Gregor Blanco groundout to help the Royals to a 3-2 win. Gordon reached on a fielding error by first baseman Daric Barton, advancing to second base in the process. He then moved to third on a sacrifice bunt before scoring the winning run. Jesse Chavez was credited with his fourth win, while Craig Breslow fell to 4-3. Joakim Soria pitched a scoreless ninth for his 30th save. Vin Mazzaro and Kyle Davies each allowed two runs (one earned), pitching six and five innings, respectively. Oakland committed three errors, resulting in two unearned runs.

August 4

A's 4 vs. Kansas City 3
(54-53, 2nd, -8.0)

Brett Anderson allowed two runs in seven innings to lead the A's to a 4-3 win and the series victory. Anderson, making his second start since returning from the disabled list, gave up three hits, walked one and had four strikeouts. Sean O'Sullivan, meanwhile, allowed four runs (three earned) in 5.1 innings in a losing effort. Oakland got to O'Sullivan for all four runs in the sixth. Daric Barton had a bunt RBI single, Coco Crisp scored on a fielding error, then Kevin Kouzmanoff delivered a two-run double. The Royals scored both their runs against Anderson in the first. They rallied for one more in the eighth, but that is all they would manage. Michael Wuerzt struck out the side in the ninth for his fourth save.

August 6

A's 1 vs. Texas 5
(54-54, 2nd, -9.5)

Cliff Lee held the A's to one run over eight innings to lead the Rangers to a 5-1 victory. Lee gave up seven hits, walked none and had eight strikeouts, earning his 100th Major League win. Dallas Braden allowed four runs on five hits over six innings as his record dropped to 6-8. Kurt Suzuki gave Oakland a 1-0 lead in the first when he doubled home Daric Barton, but that is all the offense the A's would manage. Taylor Teagarden led the way for Texas offensively, going 2 for 4 with a double, home run, two RBI and two runs scored. Barton went 3 for 4 while Suzuki and Rajai Davis added two hits apiece.

August 7

A's 6 vs. Texas 2
(55-54, 2nd, -8.5)

The A's evened the series at one game apiece behind seven shutout innings from Gio Gonzalez. Gonzalez gave up four hits while walking three and striking out two as he earned his 10th win. He threw 113 pitches, 71 for strikes. Rich Harden, meanwhile, allowed three runs in 2.1 innings – his shortest start of the season. Coco Crisp paced the Oakland offense, finishing 2 for 2 with a home run, three RBI and two runs scored. Rajai Davis also had two hits and scored a run. Taylor Teagarden hit a solo homer in the eighth and David Murphy had a RBI single in the ninth to account for the only Rangers runs.

August 8

A's 3 vs. Texas 2
(56-54, 2nd, -7.5)

Trevor Cahill pitched eight strong innings to lead Oakland to the series victory. Cahill allowed two runs (both unearned) on six hits – his third straight start without allowing an earned run. He struck out three and did not walk a batter. Texas scored both of its runs in the sixth before Rajai Davis made it a 2-1 game with a sacrifice fly in the bottom half of the inning. The A's scored two more in the seventh, with Coco Crisp driving home Cliff Pennington with a double before Kurt Suzuki scored Crisp with a sacrifice fly. Darren Oliver took the loss, his first of the season, while Colby Lewis allowed one run on three hits over six innings in a no-decision.

August 9

A's 1 at Seattle 3
(56-55, 2nd, -8.0)

Doug Fister allowed one run over six innings to hand Oakland a series-opening 3-1 defeat. Fister gave up seven hits, walked one and struck out five as he improved to 4-8. Vin Mazzaro fell to 6-4 as he allowed three runs on five hits in seven innings. Seattle got to Mazzaro twice in the first, with Jose Lopez and Franklin Gutierrez each delivering RBI singles. Josh Wilson added the Mariners third run with a sacrifice fly in fourth, while Oakland scored its only run when Rajai Davis doubled home Coco Crisp in the sixth. Mark Ellis grounded into a triple play in the fourth inning, the A's second of the season. Chris Carter made his Major League debut and went 0 for 3 with two strikeouts.

August 10

A's 0 at Seattle 2
(56-56, 3rd, -9.0)

Felix Hernandez threw eight scoreless innings and recorded a career-high 13 strikeouts to lead Seattle past Oakland, 2-0. Hernandez allowed five hits and walked one, throwing 75 of 110 pitches for strikes. Brett Anderson fell to 3-3 despite giving up one run on five hits in seven innings. The Mariners scored first when Casey Kotchman hit a RBI single off Anderson in the sixth, then added another run in the eighth on a RBI single from Franklin Gutierrez. Coco Crisp went 2 for 4, the only Athletic to reach base multiple times. David Aardsma pitched a perfect ninth to earn his 22nd save of the season.

August 11

A's 5 at Seattle 1
(57-56, 3rd, -8.0)

Dallas Braden pitched his fourth complete game of the season as the A's salvaged the series with a 5-1 win. Braden allowed one run on four hits, walking two and striking out six as he improved to 7-8. Luke French, meanwhile, dropped to 1-3, giving up four runs in six innings. Coco Crisp and Landon Powell delivered RBI singles in the second and fourth, respectively, then Mark Ellis doubled home two more in the fifth to push the Oakland lead to 4-0. Seattle scored its only run on a Franklin Gutierrez sac fly in the seventh, before Ellis, who finished 3 for 4, doubled home another run in the eighth.

August 13

A's 3 at Minnesota 4
(57-57, 3rd, -9.0)

The A's had 14 hits but stranded 13 runners as they fell to the Twins, 4-3. Mark Ellis went 3 for 4, while Coco Crisp, Daric Barton, Kurt Suzuki, Jack Cust and Rajai Davis each had two-hit games. Oakland, however, went just 2 for 20 with runners in scoring position. Carl Pavano allowed two runs on 10 hits in 6.1 innings to improve to 15-7, while Gio Gonzalez fell to 10-8 as he allowed four runs (two earned) in six innings. Suzuki scored on an Alexi Casilla fielding error in the ninth to bring Oakland within one, but that's all the A's would manage off Matt Capps, who earned his 29th save.

August 14

A's 0 at Minnesota 2
(57-58, 3rd, -9.0)

Brian Duensing threw a three-hit shutout to lead Minnesota to a 2-0 win over Oakland. The shutout was the first of Duensing's career as he earned his sixth win of the season. Trevor Cahill, meanwhile, fell to 12-5 despite allowing one run on six hits in seven innings. The Twins scored their only run off Cahill in the third, when Orlando Hudson brought in Alexi Casilla with a sacrifice fly to left. They added their second run in the eighth when Joe Mauer singled home Denard Span. Mauer finished 3 for 4, while Span went 2 for 3.

August 15

A's 2 at Minnesota 4
(57-59, 3rd, -10.0)

Kevin Slowey pitched seven hitless innings to lead the Twins to a 4-2 victory and the series sweep. Slowey, removed after seven after throwing 106 pitches, improved to 11-5 with the win. The A's broke up the team no-hitter with one out in the eighth, when Cliff Pennington doubled off Jon Rauch. Crisp then doubled home Pennington, and Crisp later scored on an error to account for the only Oakland runs. Vin Mazzaro (6-5), meanwhile, took the loss as he allowed two runs (one earned) in seven innings, walking three and striking out three. Jim Thome accounted for the bulk of the Twins offense, hitting a three-run home run – his 15th of the year – off Jerry Blevins in the seventh inning.

August 16

A's 1 vs. Toronto 3
(57-60, 3rd, -10.0)

Shaun Marcum carried a no-hitter into the seventh inning to lead Toronto to a 2-1 win and push Oakland's losing streak to four games. Marcum allowed only one hit – a solo home run by Conor Jackson leading off the seventh – in his complete-game effort, improving to 11-6. Brett Anderson allowed three runs (two earned) in six innings as he fell to 3-4. Jose Bautista was the first Blue Jay to get to Anderson, hitting a solo homer in the fourth. Edwin Encarnacion later added a two-run home run in the fifth as Toronto built a 3-0 lead. Jose Molina, meanwhile, went 4 for 4.

August 17

A's 6 vs. Toronto 2
(58-60, 3rd, -9.0)

Dallas Braden went seven innings to lead the A's to a 6-2 win. Braden allowed two runs (one earned) on three hits, evening his recording at 8-8. Brandon Morrow gave up two runs in four innings before giving way to Brian Tallet, who allowed two runs in two innings to drop to 2-5. With the score tied 2-2, Oakland put three runs on the board in the seventh, with Mark Ellis and Rajai Davis hitting RBI singles and Jack Cust delivering a run-scoring ground out. Michael Wurtz entered the game in the eighth, pitching 1.1 hitless innings to earn his sixth save. Coco Crisp went 3 for 4 and scored twice, while Daric Barton and Steve Tolleson each had two-hit showings.

August 18

A's 5 vs. Toronto 4
(59-60, T-2nd, -8.0)

Cliff Pennington hit a walk-off RBI single to lead the A's to a 5-4 win and the series victory. After Toronto rallied for three runs in the top of the ninth to tie the score at 4-4, Pennington brought home Steve Tolleson, who had led off the inning with a single, for the game-winner. Tolleson finished 2 for 4, while Coco Crisp went 3 for 3 with two RBI and scored twice. Brad Ziegler earned his third win of the season in relief of Gio Gonzalez, who allowed one run on two hits in seven innings in a no-decision.

August 19

A's 4 vs. Tampa Bay 3
(60-60, T-2nd, -7.0)

Trevor Cahill allowed three runs in eight innings to pace the A's to a 4-3 win over Tampa Bay. Cahill, who gave up seven hits while walking two and striking out five, improved to 13-5 with the win. Down 3-1, Oakland rallied for three runs in the sixth, with Cliff Pennington delivering the big blow in the form of a two-run double. Jerry Blevins later pitched a perfect ninth to earn his first Major League save. Andy Sonnanstine allowed three runs in 5.1 innings for the Rays in a no-decision. Evan Longoria and Carlos Pena each homered for Tampa Bay.

August 20

A's 5 vs. Tampa Bay 4
(61-60, 2nd, -7.0)

The A's put together another come-from-behind effort to beat the Rays and extend their winning streak to four games. After Ben Zobrist put Tampa Bay ahead 4-3 with a solo home run in the seventh, Oakland scored twice in the eighth to push things to the eventual 5-4 final margin. Rajai Davis delivered a sacrifice fly, before Kevin Kouzmanoff scored on a fielding error by Zobrist at second base. Henry Rodriguez earned the win in relief, the first of his Major League career, while Joaquin Benoit fell to 0-2. Vin Mazzaro allowed three runs (one earned) in 6.1 innings in a no-decision.

August 21

A's 4 vs. Tampa Bay 5
(61-61, T-2nd, -7.0)

Tampa Bay rallied for three runs in the eighth inning to earn a 5-4 comeback win over Oakland. Sean Rodriguez delivered a two-out, two-run homer to left-center in the inning off Craig Breslow, who allowed all three eighth-inning runs as he fell to 4-4. Randy Choate, meanwhile, improved to 3-3. Brett Anderson gave up two runs in seven innings while striking out eight in a no-decision. Daric Barton went 3 for 3 for the A's, while Mark Ellis went 2 for 4 with two RBI. Rodriguez and Willy Aybar had two hits apiece for Tampa Bay, and Rafael Soriano threw a perfect ninth for his 36th save.

August 22

A's 2 vs. Tampa Bay 3

(61-62, 2nd, -8.0)

Matt Garza allowed one run in 7.2 innings to pace the Rays to a 3-2 win over the A's. Garza gave up four hits, walking three and striking out three as he earned his 13th win. Dallas Braden, meanwhile, allowed three runs in six innings to fall to 8-9. Kelly Shoppach gave Tampa Bay a 1-0 lead with a RBI double in the third, before Garza balked home a run in the fifth. The Rays moved back ahead in the sixth when Evan Longoria hit a two-run double. The A's rallied for one run against Rafael Soriano in the ninth when Gabe Gross doubled in Kurt Suzuki, but Soriano ultimately shut the door for his 37th save of the year.

August 24

A's 5 at Cleveland 0

(62-62, 2nd, -8.5)

Gio Gonzalez threw seven scoreless innings to lead the A's to a series-opening win over the Indians, 5-0. Gonzalez gave up five hits, walking one and striking out seven as he improved to 11-5. Fausto Carmona, meanwhile, allowed four runs on nine hits in 6.2 innings as he dropped to 11-12. Oakland scored all five of its runs via home runs; Jeff Larish hit a two-run homer in the second, Coco Crisp had a solo shot in the fifth and Jack Cust delivered a two-run home run in the seventh. Crisp finished 3 for 5 with two runs scored, while Larish, Cust and Rajai Davis each had two hits apiece.

August 25

A's 6 at Cleveland 1

(63-62, 2nd, -8.5)

The A's scored five times in the first as they cruised to a 6-1 win. Jack Cust and Rajai Davis each delivered RBI singles in the frame, before Kevin Kouzmanoff hit a three-run double to break things open. Indians starter Mitch Talbot settled down after that, allowing one more run – via a Gabe Gross sac fly in the sixth – as he went six innings and fell to 8-11. Trevor Cahill, meanwhile, went seven innings to improve to 14-5. He allowed only one unearned run, when Asdrubal Cabrera singled in Jason Donald, who reached on an error by Kouzmanoff, in the fifth inning. Cust and Kouzmanoff each went 2 for 4 for the A's, while Shin-Soo Choo led the Indians with three hits. Craig Breslow and Henry Rodriguez struck out the side in the eighth and ninth innings, respectively.

August 26

A's 2 at Cleveland 3

(63-63, 2nd, -8.5)

The Indians staved off the sweep behind a strong showing from Justin Masterson. Masterson allowed two runs on five hits over six innings as he raised his record to 5-12. Vin Mazzaro, who gave up three runs in 6.1 innings, dropped to 6-6. Down 2-1 in the sixth, Matt LaPorta hit a two-run home run to give Cleveland the eventual 3-2 final margin. Gabe Gross and Kevin Kouzmanoff drove home the Oakland runs, hitting a RBI single and run-scoring double in the second and sixth, respectively. Chris Perez entered the game in the eighth inning, throwing 1.2 scoreless innings and striking out four to earn his 16th save.

August 27

A's 3 at Texas 7

(63-64, 2nd, -9.5)

Tommy Hunter allowed three runs in 7.2 innings to earn his 11th win and hand Texas the series-opener. Hunter allowed seven hits, walked two and struck out four, throwing 66 of 101 pitches for strikes. Brett Anderson, meanwhile, left after two innings due to injury, giving up four runs on six hits. The A's had gone 18 consecutive games with six innings or more and three earned runs or fewer from their starters, which matched the longest streak by an Athletics' team since the earned run became an official statistic in the American League in 1913 (also 1927). It was the longest by any team since the 1997 Atlanta Braves had a 21-game streak from August 9 to September 2. Josh Hamilton, Andres Blanco and Julio Borbon each had three-hit games for the Rangers, while Kevin Kouzmanoff and Daric Barton both homered for the A's.

August 28

A's 5 at Texas 0

(64-64, 2nd, -8.5)

Dallas Braden threw his second career shutout and fifth complete game of the season to lead the A's to a 5-0 win. Braden allowed four hits and walked none, evening his record at 9-9. Rich Harden gave up four runs on eight hits in 4.1 innings as he fell to 5-5. Kurt Suzuki and Daric Barton provided the bulk of the Oakland offense; Suzuki went 4 for 5 with two RBI, while Barton hit a two-run homer in the third and scored four times. It was only the third time this season that the Rangers had been shut out.

August 29

A's 8 at Texas 2

(65-64, 2nd, -7.5)

Gio Gonzalez allowed two runs in six innings to lead the A's to an 8-2 win and the series victory. Gonzalez, who improved to 12-8, gave up five hits, walked one and struck out four, throwing 65 of his 95 pitches for strikes. Colby Lewis, meanwhile, allowed seven runs (six earned) on eight hits in 5.2 innings as his record dropped to 9-11. Coco Crisp, Kevin Kouzmanoff, Mark Ellis, Rajai Davis and Cliff Pennington all had two-hit games for Oakland, with Ellis and Kouzmanoff homering in the fourth and sixth, respectively.

August 30

A's 5 at New York 11

(65-65, 2nd, -8.5)

Robinson Cano, Nick Swisher and Marcus Thames drove in three runs apiece as the Yankees earned an 11-5 win in the series-opener. After the A's scored three runs in the top of the first, New York answered with three in the bottom of the frame, with Mark Teixeira and Cano both homering off Oakland starter Trevor Cahill. After building a 6-4 lead, the Yankees then had a five-run fifth, with Thames delivering the big blow in the form of a three-run homer. Cahill gave up eight earned runs on nine hits – both season highs – in four innings, his shortest start of the year, as he fell to 14-6. Javier Vazquez (10-9), meanwhile, earned the win in relief of Dustin Moseley by allowing one run in 4.2 innings. Jeff Larish went 3 for 4 with a home run and four RBI for the A's.

August 31

A's 3 at New York 9
(65-66, 2nd, -8.5)

Vin Mazzaro allowed a season-high-tying seven earned runs – nine total – in 3.2 innings as the Yankees cruised to a 9-3 win. Mazzaro gave up seven hits, including home runs by Nick Swisher, Curtis Granderson and Mark Teixeira, who hit a three-run shot in the fourth and finished 2 for 3. Phil Hughes, meanwhile, allowed two runs on four hits in five innings as he earned his 16th win. Kurt Suzuki's sac fly in the third, Rajai Davis' RBI ground out in the fourth and a solo home run by Daric Barton in the seventh accounted for the Oakland offense.

September 1

A's 3 at New York 4
(65-67, 2nd, -9.5)

Mark Teixeira went 3 for 4 with three RBI and A.J. Burnett allowed three runs in six innings as the Yankees beat the A's by a score of 4-3. Burnett improved to 10-12 with the win, while Brett Anderson fell to 3-3. New York built a 4-0 lead with a three-run second, only one run of which was earned following an error by Anderson. Kevin Kouzmanoff later hit a two-run home run in the fourth, before Coco Crisp brought the A's within one with a RBI ground out in the fifth. That's all the offense Oakland would manage, though, as the Yankee bullpen combined to throw three scoreless innings, with Mariano Rivera pitching the ninth to earn his 28th save.

September 2

A's 0 at New York 5
(65-68, 2nd, -10.0)

CC Sabathia pitched eight scoreless innings to lead the Yankees to a 5-0 win and a four-game sweep of the A's. Sabathia allowed only one hit, a second-inning single by Mark Ellis, as he earned his 19th win of the season. Dallas Braden (9-10), meanwhile, gave up one run – a solo home run by Jorge Posada in the second – on two hits in five innings before leaving the game in the sixth due to cramps. Curtis Granderson went 2 for 3, homered twice and had three RBI to pace the New York offense. Posada also finished with two hits.

September 3

A's 8 vs. Los Angeles 0
(66-68, 2nd, -9.0)

Kevin Kouzmanoff and Cliff Pennington both hit two-run home runs during a sixth-run seventh that led Oakland to an 8-0 win in the series opener. Gio Gonzalez, meanwhile, pitched six scoreless innings to earn his 13th win, allowing four hits while walking three and striking out six. Angels starter Scott Kazmir allowed two runs in 5.2 innings to fall to 8-13, but the A's did the bulk of their damage against the Los Angeles bullpen, tagging Jason Bulger and Brian Stokes for four and two runs, respectively. Mark Ellis and Rajai Davis recorded two hits apiece.

September 4

A's 3 vs. Los Angeles 1
(67-68, 2nd, -8.0)

Trevor Cahill threw six shutout innings to earn his 15th win and lead Oakland to the series victory. He became the A's first 15-game winner since Dan Haren also won 15 games in 2007, but walked a career-high six batters in the process. Fellow All-Star Jered Weaver gave up three runs in seven innings as he fell to 11-11. The A's scored single runs in the first, second and sixth innings, with Jack Cust, Cliff Pennington and Mark Ellis delivering RBI singles. Andrew Bailey tossed a perfect ninth, recording his 21st save.

September 5

A's 4 vs. Los Angeles 7
(67-69, 2nd, -8.0)

The Angels tagged Vin Mazzaro for five runs over 4.1 innings as they salvaged the series with a 7-4 win. Los Angeles got a pair of two-run homers in the fourth, courtesy of Bobby Abreu and Mike Napoli. Hideki Matsui also had a big day, finishing 3 for 5, while Ervin Santana allowed three runs (two earned) in six innings for his 15th win. Jack Cust – who had a RBI single in the ninth – and Mark Ellis each recorded two hits for the A's.

September 6

A's 6 vs. Seattle 2
(68-69, 2nd, -7.0)

Brett Anderson allowed one run over 7.2 innings to lead the A's to a 6-2 victory. Anderson gave up four hits and walked none while recording four strikeouts, throwing 64 of 107 pitches for strikes. Jason Vargas, meanwhile, dropped to 9-9 as he surrendered five runs on seven hits in 4.1 innings. Coco Crisp (first inning) and Matt Carson (fourth) each hit solo home runs for Oakland, with Crisp, Daric Barton and Jack Cust – who had a run-scoring single in the seventh to make it 6-1 – each recording two-hit games.

September 7

A's 5 vs. Seattle 7
(68-70, 2nd, -7.0)

The Mariners used a five-run fifth to propel them to a 7-5 win in the second game of the series. Seattle strung together five consecutive hits in the inning against Dallas Braden, with Adam Moore then adding a solo home run in the third to make it 6-0. Braden allowed the six runs on nine hits over five innings, falling to 9-11. Doug Fister, meanwhile, yielded two runs over five innings for his fifth win. The A's rallied for three runs in the ninth, with Coco Crisp hitting a two-run single and then scoring on a wild pitch, but then David Aardsma entered to record the final out and earn his 29th save.

September 8

A's 4 vs. Seattle 3
(69-70, 2nd, -7.0)

Gio Gonzalez allowed three runs and struck out nine over 6.2 innings to lead the A's to a 4-3 win and the series victory. Gonzalez improved to 14-8, while Seattle's Luke French, who gave up four runs in 5.1 innings, dropped to 4-5. Down 3-0, Oakland rallied for two in the third when Coco Crisp hit a two-run home run. They then scored two more in the sixth, with Cliff Pennington scoring Rajai Davis on a force out and Crisp later singling home Matt Carson. Crisp finished 2 for 4 with a stolen base, while Davis collected three hits. Andrew Bailey earned his 22nd save with a scoreless ninth.

September 10

A's 5 vs. Boston 0

(70-70, 2nd, -7.5)

The A's scored all five of their runs in the first two innings and Trevor Cahill turned in another strong outing to lead Oakland to a 5-0 win. Kurt Suzuki hit a two-run double in the first, then scored when Jeremy Hermida grounded into a double play. The A's added two more when Daric Barton scored Jeff Larish and Cliff Pennington with a second-inning single. All five runs were charged to Clay Buchholz, who pitched one-plus inning as he fell to 15-7. Cahill, meanwhile, threw seven scoreless innings to improve to 16-6, allowing three hits while walking two and recording four strikeouts. He threw 107 pitches, 62 strikes.

September 11

A's 4 vs. Boston 3

(71-70, 2nd, -7.5)

Oakland rallied with a three-run seventh to earn a 4-3 come-from-behind victory and the series win over Boston. Down 2-0, the A's got to John Lackey for a pair of RBI singles from Jack Cust and Mark Ellis before Rajai Davis delivered a run-scoring triple to hand Oakland a 3-2 lead. Cust then singled home Coco Crisp in the eighth to make it 4-2. The Red Sox rallied when Adrian Beltre delivered a run-scoring double in the ninth, but that's all they would manage against Andrew Bailey, who earned his 23rd save. Brett Anderson allowed two runs on eight hits in seven innings as he improved to 5-6.

September 12

A's 3 vs. Boston 5

(71-71, 2nd, -8.5)

Boston rallied with a four-run sixth to earn a 5-3 win and avoid the series sweep. After Mark Ellis hit a two-run double in the fifth to give the A's a 3-0 lead, the Red Sox got a pair of two-run hits from J.D. Drew (double) and Ryan Kalish (single) in the ensuing inning. Drew, who finished 3 for 3, then singled home another run in the eighth for the eventual final margin. Dallas Braden, who allowed four runs in 5.2 innings, fell to 9-12 while Josh Beckett improved to 5-4. Beckett gave up three runs in six innings while recording seven strikeouts. Jonathan Papelbon struck out the side in the ninth for his 36th save.

September 13

A's 3 at Kansas City 1

(72-71, 2nd, -8.0)

Bobby Cramer allowed one run over 5.1 innings in his Major League debut to lead the A's to a 3-1 win. Cramer gave up four hits, walked one and recorded four strikeouts, throwing 59 of 91 pitches for strikes. Luke Hochevar, meanwhile, fell to 5-5 despite allowing two unearned runs in five innings. The A's scored single runs in the first and second, with Kurt Suzuki scoring Coco Crisp on a force out and Aki Iwamura scoring on a fielding error, respectively. Mike Aviles provided the only Kansas City offense with a solo home run in the fourth, before Jack Cust hit a solo shot of his own in the sixth. Andrew Bailey threw a scoreless ninth to earn his 24th save of the season.

September 14

A's 3 at Kansas City 11

(72-72, 2nd, -9.0)

The Royals scored all 11 of their runs over the first three innings as they cruised to an 11-3 win. Gio Gonzalez (14-9) was charged with the loss, allowing seven runs over two-plus innings. Kila Ka'aihue hit a two-run home run in the first, and Mike Aviles and Wilson Betemit had three-run and two-run shots, respectively, in the third inning. Zack Greinke allowed three runs in seven innings to improve to 9-12. The A's scored all three of their runs in the sixth, with Landon Powell and Jack Cust hitting run-scoring singles before Aki Iwamura scored Powell on a force out.

September 15

A's 3 at Kansas City 6

(72-73, 2nd, -10.0)

Kansas City turned to the long ball again as Wilson Betemit hit a grand slam and Billy Butler delivered a two-run shot to give the Royals a 6-3 victory and the series win. Down 3-0, Betemit's slam in the third gave Kansas City the lead before Butler provided the insurance in the fifth. All six runs were charged to Trevor Cahill, who pitched five innings and fell to 16-7. Bruce Chen allowed three runs in five innings for his 10th win. Joakim Soria threw a scoreless ninth for his 38th save. Mark Ellis and Kurt Suzuki had RBI singles in the first, while Matt Carson homered in the third.

September 17

A's 3 at Minnesota 1

(73-73, 2nd, -9.0)

Brett Anderson allowed one run over 6.2 innings to lead the A's to a series-opening 3-1 win. Anderson, who improved to 6-6, gave up four hits, walked one and had five strikeouts. Nick Blackburn fell to 9-10 despite allowing three runs over seven innings. Rajai Davis had a sacrifice fly in the second, then Mark Ellis later hit a RBI single in the fifth to make it 2-0. After Danny Valencia homered for Minnesota in the fifth, Jack Cust hit a solo shot in the sixth for the eventual final margin. Andrew Bailey earned his 25th save with a scoreless ninth.

September 18

A's 2 at Minnesota 4

(73-74, 2nd, -10.0)

Danny Valencia hit a three-run home run in sixth that proved to be the difference in a 4-2 Twins win. Landon Powell gave the A's the early lead with a solo shot in the second, then Ben Revere scored J.J. Hardy on a ground out to tie things up. Following Valencia's homer, Oakland shaved the lead down to two when Aki Iwamura doubled home Rajai Davis, but that would be all the offense they would manage. Kevin Slowey allowed two runs and struck out eight in 6.2 innings to earn the win, while Dallas Braden gave up four runs in six innings. Matt Capps tossed a perfect ninth for his 40th save.

September 19

A's 6 at Minnesota 2

(74-74, 2nd, -9.0)

Oakland jumped out to a 5-0 lead and Bobby Cramer allowed two runs in 5.2 innings as the A's beat the Twins 6-2 to take the series. The A's opened with a three-run first, with Kurt Suzuki hitting a run-scoring single and Aki Iwamura delivering a two-run single. They then got two more in the fifth when Mark Ellis hit a two-run homer to left. The five runs were charged to Francisco Liriano, who went five innings and fell to 14-8. After Michael Cuddyer and Jim Thome hit solo shots off Cramer (2-0) in the sixth, Rajai Davis hit a RBI single in the ninth to account for the final scoring.

September 20

A's 3 vs. Chicago 0

(75-74, 2nd, -8.0)

Chris Carter recorded his first Major League hit and the A's scored three times in the seventh in a 3-0 win in their series opener with the White Sox. Carter led off the seventh with a single, snapping his career-opening 0 for 33 streak, the longest such streak in Oakland history. Daric Barton drove in Gabe Gross - who pinch ran for Carter - on a force out, before Kurt Suzuki hit a two-run single to account for all the game's offense. Boof Bonser (1-0) earned the win in relief of Gio Gonzalez, who allowed four hits over six innings in a no-decision. Craig Breslow worked the ninth for his third save of the season.

September 21

A's 7 vs. Chicago 2

(76-74, 2nd, -7.0)

Trevor Cahill allowed two runs over eight innings to lead Oakland to the series win. Cahill, who earned his 17th win in the process, gave up six hits, walked one and struck out seven as he threw 106 pitches, 67 strikes. Mark Buehrle, meanwhile, allowed five runs on 11 hits as he dropped to 12-12. Ahead 2-0, the A's scored three times in the fourth, with Cliff Pennington delivering a two-run double in the inning. They later added two more in the eighth to put the game out of reach, with Rajai Davis hitting a run-scoring single and later scoring on a throwing error by A.J. Pierzynski.

September 22

A's 3 vs. Chicago 4

(76-75, 2nd, -8.0)

The White Sox rallied for two runs in the ninth to stave off the sweep and earn a 4-3 win. Mark Kotsay delivered a RBI single to drive in the first ninth-inning run, before Mark Teahen later hit the go-ahead double that proved to be the game winner. Both runs were charged to Brad Ziegler, who fell to 3-5. Brett Anderson allowed one run over 6.2 innings in a no-decision. Matt Thornton improved to 4-4 with the win in relief, and Chris Sale earned his third save. Chris Carter, meanwhile, hit his first Major League home run, a solo shot off Edwin Jackson in the third inning.

September 23

A's 5 vs. Texas 0

(77-75, 2nd, -7.0)

Dallas Braden allowed one hit in eight scoreless innings to lead the A's to a 5-0 win over Texas. Braden earned his 10th win, walking two and striking out seven as he threw 75 of his 114 pitches for strikes. Cliff Lee, meanwhile, allowed four runs in five innings to drop to 12-9. Oakland scored twice in the fourth, with Jack Cust hitting a RBI single and Chris Carter driving one home with a sacrifice fly. The A's added two more against Lee in the fifth as Steve Tolleson hit a run-scoring double and then scored when Daric Barton grounded into a double play. Matt Carson later scored Carter on a double in sixth to account for the fifth run.

September 24

A's 3 vs. Texas 10

(77-76, 2nd, -8.0)

The Rangers scored a combined eight runs in the seventh and eighth innings to earn a 10-3 win and drop their magic number to clinch the American League West to two. Already ahead 2-1, Texas put a five spot on the board in the seventh, with Vladimir Guerrero delivering the big blow in the form of a three-run triple. The Rangers then added three more in the eighth to put the game out of reach. Guerrero finished 3 for 5 with four RBI while Jeff Francoeur also recorded three hits and homered. Tommy Hunter allowed one run over 5.1 innings to improve to 13-4 as Bobby Cramer gave up four runs in six innings to fall to 2-1.

September 25

A's 3 vs. Texas 4

(77-77, 2nd, -9.0)

Jorge Cantu hit a go-ahead home run in the eighth that proved to be the game winner, handing the Rangers a 4-3 win to clinch the American League West and their first playoff berth since 1999. Down 3-1 in the seventh, Cliff Pennington hit a two-run homer to tie the game at three runs apiece. Cantu then delivered his two-out solo shot in the eighth off Michael Wuerzt (2-3), before Neftali Feliz pitched 1.1 scoreless innings for his 38th save - the most ever by a rookie. Gio Gonzalez allowed two runs on seven hits in six innings in a no-decision.

September 26

A's 9 vs. Texas 16

(77-78, 2nd, -10.0)

The A's allowed season highs in runs (16) and hits (22) as they lost their final home game of the season to the Rangers. Trailing 9-1, Oakland rallied with a six-run eighth to cut the Texas lead to two. Gabe Gross hit a two-run single in the inning, then Steve Tolleson hit a three-run home run - his first in the Major Leagues. The Rangers, however, then responded with a seven-run ninth, matching their season high in runs for an inning. Mitch Moreland homered twice and had five RBI for Texas, and Jeff Francoeur went 4 for 6 with a home run and four RBI. Trevor Cahill (17-8) allowed seven runs on a career-high 12 hits over four innings.

September 27

A's 5 at Los Angeles 6

(77-79, 2nd, -10.0)

The Angels rallied with a three-run seventh to earn a series-opening win over the A's. Oakland had jumped out to a 3-0 lead, with Jeremy Hermida delivering a solo homer in the second. After Los Angeles tied the game in the bottom of the second, the A's regained the lead on Jack Cust's RBI single in the fourth. The Angels then scored three in the seventh as Hideki Matsui hit a run-scoring single before Erick Aybar (hit by pitch) and Hank Conger (walk) each reached with the bases loaded. Brad Ziegler took the loss in relief and dropped to 3-6, while Brett Anderson allowed four runs in 6.1 innings in a no-decision. Michael Kohn improved to 2-0 with the win.

September 28

A's 2 at Los Angeles 4

(77-80, T-2nd, -10.0)

Dan Haren held the A's to two runs in six innings to lead the Angels to a 4-2 win. Haren, who gave up six hits, walked one and struck out five, improved to 11-12 while Dallas Braden gave up four runs (three earned) in seven to drop to 10-14. Down 2-1, Los Angeles got to Braden twice in the sixth, with Mike Napoli delivering a RBI single and Hideki Matsui scoring Torii Hunter on a ground out. Fernando Rodney later threw a scoreless ninth for his 14th save. Daric Barton, Mark Ellis and Cliff Pennington recorded two hits apiece.

September 29

A's 1 at Los Angeles 2 (11)
(77-81, 3rd, -11.0)

The Angels beat the A's with Torii Hunter's RBI single in the 11th to cap a three-game sweep over Oakland. The loss dropped the A's out of at least a tie of second place for the first time since August 17. Brad Ziegler fell to 3-7, while Bobby Cassevah earned his first Major League win. Bobby Cramer, meanwhile, allowed one run on three hits in 6.2 innings in a no-decision. Rajai Davis and Mark Ellis each had two hits for Oakland.

September 30

A's 8 at Seattle 1
(78-81, T-2nd, -11.0)

The A's snapped their season-high six-game losing streak with a series-opening win in Seattle. The A's scored four runs in the fifth and three more in the sixth to build a 7-0 advantage, with Chris Carter supplying the big blow with a two-run homer in the sixth, the second of his career. Gio Gonzalez, meanwhile, threw seven scoreless innings to earn his 15th win, while Doug Fister allowed six runs on 13 hits to drop to 6-14. Carter, Rajai Davis, Daric Barton, Mark Ellis, Jack Cust and Kevin Kouzmanoff all had multiple-hit games, with Davis tying his career high of four hits.

October 1

A's 9 at Seattle 0
(79-81, T-2nd, -11.0)

Daric Barton hit two home runs – including his first career grand slam – as the A's earned their American League leading 17th shutout of the season. Oakland jumped out to a 7-0 lead following a six-run second, when Barton hit his grand slam for his 10th home run of the year. Trevor Cahill allowed five hits in seven innings as he improved to 18-8, the most wins by an Athletic since 2002 when Barry Zito and Mark Mulder had 23 and 19 wins, respectively. Barton finished with six RBI, while Rajai Davis and Cliff Pennington chipped in with two hits apiece.

October 2

A's 5 at Seattle 3
(80-81, 2nd, -10.0)

Brett Anderson allowed two runs (one earned) over seven innings to lead Oakland to a 5-3 win. Anderson, who improved to 7-6 in his final start of the year, walked one and struck out six, throwing 79 of his 122 pitches for strikes. David Pauley, meanwhile, gave up four runs in seven innings to fall to 4-9. Mark Ellis (fourth inning), Jack Cust (fourth) and Chris Carter (fifth) all homered off Pauley for the A's. Craig Breslow pitched the ninth and earned his fourth save.

October 3

A's 4 at Seattle 3
(81-81, 2nd, -9.0)

Dallas Braden earned his 11th win as Oakland claimed second place with a season-ending 4-3 victory over Seattle. The A's finished the season at the .500 mark with 81 wins, their most since 2006 when they won the American League West with a 93-69 record. With Oakland ahead 3-2, Kevin Kouzmanoff hit a solo home run – his 16th of the year – in the eighth inning that proved to be the difference, as Seattle added a run in the bottom of the frame. Braden allowed two runs in five innings, throwing 76 pitches, 56 strikes. Craig Breslow, meanwhile, threw 1.1 scoreless innings for his fifth save.
